MODE of adjuſting the firſt Account mentioned in the Act reſpecting Utenſils, Materials, Furniture, Rent, etcetera.

LET it be ſuppoſed that the Pariſhes or Townſhips of A. B. C. and D. have agreed to be united under the Authority of the Act; and that E. and F. are the Perſons named in the Agreement as Arbitrators, or Referees, to ſettle and adjuſt the Proportions which each Pariſh or Place is to pay.

It will be neceſſary for E. and F. at their firſt Meeting, to call upon the Officers of every ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for their Aſſeſſments and Accounts, in order to ſee what they have paid to their Poor, on a Medium of three Years preceding the Agreement; who are required by the Act to produce them, under a Penalty for Refuſal.

When the Arbitrators have got theſe Materials, it will be neceſſary to ſeparate and deduct every Matter which does not relate to the Poor; for Inſtance, Money paid to the County Rates, or for the Expences of the Conſtable, Headborough, or Militia, which are all now included in the Poor's Rates; and, as ſome of theſe Pariſhes may have had Expences occaſioned by Litigations about Settlements and Removals, and others may not, they ſhould exclude all ſuch Expences in the Account.

When the Accounts have been ſo inſpected and examined, and the proper Deductions made, they may be ſuppoſed to appear:

That A. has paid for the firſt of the three Years	65	7	6
for the ſecond Year	87	2	—
for the third Year	105	—	—
Making together	257	9	6
A third Part of which Sum (being A.'s Medium) will be	85	16	6
Let B.'s Payments be calculated in the ſame Manner, which may be ſuppoſed to amount, on the Medium of three Years, to	110	—	—
C.'s D°, to	97	—	—
D.'s D°, to	140	—	—
The total Amount of the annual Payments will be	432	16	6

Suppoſe the Month's Expences paid by the ſeveral Pariſhes under the above Heads, according to the Directions of the Act, ſhould amount to £. 300, the Queſtion will be, If £. 432: 16: 6 (the Total Medium of all the Pariſhes) require £. 300, what will £. 85: 16: 6 require? When that ſhall be worked by the Rule of Three, multiplying the Third Number by the Second, and dividing it when ſo multiplied by the Firſt, the Anſwer will be,

That A.'s Proportion amounts to	59	9	5
B.'s Proportion, when worked in the ſame Manner, will be	76	5	—
C.'s D°	67	4	7
D.'s D°	97	1	—
Making together the whole Sum expended	300	—	—

When thoſe Medium Sums ſhall be ſettled and proportioned at their firſt Meeting, there will be no Occaſion to repeat that Trouble afterwards, as the firſt Sum will be the ſame on all future Calculations; and to prevent Trouble in adjuſting the Proportions at every Monthly Meeting, at every Poor Houſe, ſoon after the firſt Medium Proportions ſhall be ſo aſcertained, there ſhall be a Table fixed, calculating the Proportions of each Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, to any given Sum, from the ſmalleſt to the greateſt, that is likely to be expended in that Diſtrict within the Month; which will make every Account clear and eaſy to the meaneſt Underſtanding, and will be liquidated in an Inſtant.

The ſeveral monthly Sums paid by each Pariſh on this ſecond Account, and alſo the groſs Sums, ſhould be entered in the Treaſurer's Books; and at the End of the Year it ſhould be computed whether the Payments by the ſeveral Pariſhes have amounted to more, or leſs, than the Sum expended; if to more, the Guardian of each Pariſh ſhould receive, if to leſs, he ſhould pay his Proportion thereof to the Treaſurer, to be computed according to the firſt Account, as directed by the Act.

Regulations, &c. of the recited Act to be applied in Execution of this Act.

From July 5, 1783, no Currants shall be imported in any less Package than Five Hundred Weight,

III. And whereas great Quantities of Currants are imported into Great Britain in Rolls and other small Packages, and are clandestinely run on Shore without Payment of the Duties due for the same, to the Diminution of the publick Revenue, and the Prejudice of the fair Trader: for Remedy whereof, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, no Currants shall be imported or brought into Great Britain from any Place beyond the Seas, upon any Pretence whatsoever, otherwise than loose in Hogsheads or other Casks, each of which shall contain five hundred Weight Avoirdupois of net Currants at the least, and shall not be packed in Rolls, Bags, or in any other Packages, within such Hogshead or Cask, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Currants as shall be imported, or brought or found on Board any Ship or Vessel within any Port, Harbour, or Creek, within this Kingdom, contrary to this Act, together with the Package containing the same; and such Currants shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs, and prosecuted in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively; one Moiety of which Forfeiture, after deducting the Charges of Condemnation and Sale of such Currants, shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Officer or Officers of the Customs as shall seize such Currants and prosecute for the same.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for allowing the Importation of Goods from Europe in Neutral Ships into the Islands of Saint Christopher, Nevis, Montserrat, Dominica, Saint Vincent, Grenada, and the Grenadines; and of Goods the Produce or Manufacture of the said Islands, and of Tobago and Saint Lucia, from thence into this Kingdom, in such Ships, upon Payment of the British Plantation Duties, for a limited Time; for permitting certain Goods, the Produce of those Islands, secured in Warehouses in this Kingdom, to be taken out, on Payment of the British Plantation Duties, and to cancel certain Bonds entered into for Payment of the Duties due thereon; for further continuing certain temporary Acts for the Encouragement of Trade; and to repeal an Act, made in the twenty-second Year of his Majesty's Reign, for allowing the Importation of Goods the Growth of Saint Christopher, Nevis, and Montserrat, into any of his Majesty's Dominions in Europe or America.

'WHEREAS, during the late Hostilities, the Islands of Saint Christopher, Nevis, Montserrat, Dominica, Saint Vincent, Grenada, and the Grenadines, were taken by the Arms of his most Christian Majesty, and, by the Preliminary Articles of Peace, are to be restored to this Kingdom; and it may happen that Neutral Ships, laden at foreign Ports in Europe with Cargoes consigned to the said Islands, may not arrive there before such Islands are so restored as aforesaid, and it is expedient to permit such Ships to land their Cargoes at those Islands, and to bring from thence to Great Britain any Goods of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of such Islands;' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any Neutral Ship or Vessel that shall have cleared out from any foreign Port in Europe before the first Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, with any Goods consigned to the said Islands, or either of them, to enter and land such Goods at any of the said Islands, although such Ships may not arrive there till after the said Islands are restored and delivered up to his Majesty; and it shall and may be lawful for such Ships, at any Time before the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, to take on Board, and bring back to any Port in Great Britain, any Goods, being the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of such Islands, Preamble. Neutral Vessels cleared out from foreign Ports to St. Christopher's, &c. before April 1, 1783, may land their Cargoes, &c.

Islands, and such Goods shall and may be admitted to an Entry in this Kingdom, upon Payment of the like Duties, as if such Goods had been imported from any British Island in the West Indies in British Ships duly navigated; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Goods, the Produce of Tobago or St. Lucia, may be imported during a limited Time, on Payment of British Plantation Duties.

'II. And whereas the Islands of Tobago and Saint Lucia are, by the said Preliminary Articles, to be de-'livered up to his Most Christian Majesty,' it is therefore hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during such Time as shall be allowed by the Definitive Treaty of Peace to the Planters, Merchants, and Inhabitants, to withdraw themselves and their Effects from the said Islands, it shall and may be lawful for such Persons to import, directly from thence into this Kingdom, any Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, being the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of the said respective Islands, upon Payment of such Duties as would have been due and payable for such Goods if they had been imported from any of the British West India Islands, in British Ships.

The Importer to make Oath that such Goods are the Produce or Manufacture of the said Islands.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Importer or Importers of such Goods from any of the said Islands herein-before mentioned, shall make Oath, before the Collector and Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs at the Port of Importation in this Kingdom, (which Oath such Collector and Comptroller are hereby impowered to administer), that, to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, the Goods so imported are really and bona fide the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of the said respective Islands; and on Default of such Oath, the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Payment of the like Duties as they would be liable to if imported from any foreign West India Island; and such Goods shall, upon Importation into this Kingdom, be subject and liable to the like Securities, Restrictions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all other Respects not altered by this Act, as they would be liable to if they were shipped at and imported from any British Island in the West Indies.

Certain Goods imported from the aforesaid Islands while they were possessed by the French, may be taken out of the Warehouses, on Payment of British Plantation Duties.

'IV. And whereas several Parcels of Sugar, and other Goods, the Produce of some of the before men-'tioned Islands, have been imported into Great Britain from thence during the Time such Islands were in 'the Possession of his most Christian Majesty, and are now secured in several Warehouses in this King-'dom, under the joint Locks of Majesty and the Proprietors of such Goods,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any four or more of them, to permit such Goods to be taken out of such Warehouses by the Importers thereof, upon Payment of the same Duties, and subject to the like Regulations, as such Goods would be subject and liable to if they had been imported directly from any British Island or Plantation in British Ships navigated according to Law; and upon Payment of the said Duty, the said Commissioners of the Customs are hereby authorised and required to order any Bonds, or other Security given by the Importers for the Duty on such Goods, to be cancelled and discharged.

'V. And whereas several Restrictions upon Commerce have been suspended, and Indulgences have been 'granted for the Benefit of Trade by various Acts of Parliament lately made, which were to continue in 'Force during the Hostilities with France, Spain, or the States General of the United Provinces, or either 'of them: And whereas it may be impracticable for the Merchants to give Notice to their Correspondents 'in foreign Parts of the Cessation of Hostilities Time enough to prevent the shipping of Goods for this 'Kingdom before Peace may be concluded and finally established;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Acts of Parliament which have been made since the twenty-sixth Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-five, whereby any such Restrictions have been suspended, or such Indulgences have been granted, shall be, and the same are hereby further continued, and shall remain in full Force until the Expiration of six Calendar Months after the Definitive Treaty of Peace shall be signed.

22 Geo. III. cap. 30. repealed.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-second Year of his Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for allowing the Importation of Goods of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, of the Islands of Saint Christopher, Nevis and Montserrat, into any Ports of his Majesty's Dominions in Europe or America, on Payment of the British Plantation Duties) shall be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void.

of the Number of Men living on board the said Battering Ships of War, and the said Spanish Ship of War, at the Time of the said Attack and Surrender respectively) to make out Bills for the Amount of the said Bounty, directed to the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy, to be divided amongst the Officers, Soldiers, Seamen, and Marines, within and belonging to the said Garrison and Naval Department, at the respective Times aforesaid, in such Manner, and in such Proportions, as his Majesty shall graciously please to order, direct, and appoint; and the Treasurer of the Navy shall, and is hereby authorised and required to pay all such Bills, according to the Course of the Navy, to the said Officers, Soldiers, Seamen, and Marines, or to such Agent or Agents as they shall authorize and appoint to receive the same, without Fee or Reward; and such Agent or Agents shall be subject and liable to the like Regulations and Directions, as any Agent or Agents appointed by virtue of the said Acts are thereby made subject and liable to.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for rendering the Payment of Creditors more equal and expeditious, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for making perpetual so much of an Act, made in the twelfth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, as relates to Bills and Promissory Notes.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by the Common Law, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the personal 'Estates of such Debtors as became insolvent were generally carried off by the Diligence of Arrest-'ment and Poinding, executed by a few Creditors, who, from the Nearness of their Residence to and 'Connexion with such Debtors, got the earliest Intelligence of the Insolvency, to the great Prejudice of 'Creditors more remote and unconnected, and to the Disappointment of that Equality which ought to 'take place in the Distribution of the Estates of insolvent Debtors among their Creditors: And whereas Recital of 12 Geo. I. I. cap. 72.

'an Act was passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for ren-'dering the Payment of the Creditors of Insolvent Debtors more equal and expeditious, and for regulating the 'Diligence of the Law by Arrestment and Poinding, and for extending the Privileges of Bills to Promissory 'Notes, and for limiting Actions upon Bills and Promissory Notes, in that Part of Great Britain called Scot-'land; which was continued by another Act made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his present 'Majesty, but is now about to expire, and hath moreover been found by Experience to be in some 'Respects insufficient for answering the Purposes thereby intended; and it being expedient that the Plan 'of the said Act should be varied, and that some other Rules and Regulations should be made for putting 'the Diligence of Creditors upon an equal and proper Footing, and preventing unjust References and 'Accumulation of Expence, and likewise for operating a more speedy Distribution of the Estates of Bank-'rupts both real and personal, especially where such Estates belong to Persons engaged in Trade and 'Manufactures;' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all

What shall be deemed sufficient Proof of Bankruptcy.

Actions and Questions arising upon the Construction and Effect of the Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, intituled, An Act for declaring Notour Bankrupts, when a Debtor is out of Scotland, or not be liable to be imprisoned by reason of Privilege or personal Protection, a Charge of Horning executed against him, together with either an Arrestment of any of his personal Effects not loosed or discharged within fifteen Days, or a Poinding executed of any of his Moveables, or a Decree of Adjudication of any Part of his heritable Estate, or Sequestration by the Act of a proper Court of all or any Part of his Estate or Effects, heritable or moveable, for Payment of Debt, shall, when joined with Insolvency, be held as sufficient Proof of Notour Bankruptcy; and from and after the last Step of such Diligence, the said Debtor, if insolvent, shall be held as Bankrupt.

Directions relative to Arrestments of Bankrupts Effects.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when a Debtor is made Bankrupt in Terms of the said Act, made in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, as now extended, all Arrestments which shall have been used for attaching any personal Effects of such Bankrupt within thirty Days prior to the Bankruptcy, or within four Calendar Months immediately subsequent, shall be pari passu preferable; and in order to save, as far as possible, the Expence of a Multiplicity of Arrestments, it is declared, That where the Effects of a Debtor are arrested by any Creditor, within thirty Days before the Bankruptcy, or within four Months after it, and a Process of Forthcoming or Multiplepoinding is brought in which such Arrestment is founded on, it shall be competent for any other Creditor, producing his Interest, and making his Claim in the said Process, at any Time before the Expiration of the said four Months, to be ranked in the same Manner as if he had used the Form of Arrestment; the Expence of raising the Process, and of the Diligence, at the Instance of the Creditor who raises it, being always paid out of the common Fund.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Arrestment executed at the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and Pier and Shore of Leith, in the Hands of any Person out of the Kingdom, without other sufficient Notification, shall not interpel the Arrestee from paying bona fide to the original Creditor.

Poinding of Moveables within a certain Time before and after Bankruptcy, not to give a Preference to Poinder, &c.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Poinding of the Moveables belonging to such Bankrupt, within thirty Days before his Bankruptcy, as aforesaid, or within four Calendar Months thereafter, shall give a Preference to such Poinder over the other lawful Creditors of the Bankrupt, but the Goods so poinded shall be considered as in medio, and the Person receiving the Price of them shall be liable to make the same forthcoming, so as that all the other Creditors of the Bankrupt who are possessed of of liquidate Grounds of Debt, or Decrees for Payment, shall be intitled to their Proportion of the same; provided they make their Claim by summoning the Poinder at any Time before the Expiration of the said four Months, deducting always the Expence of such Poinding from the first End of the Price of such Goods, together with twenty per Cent. on the appraised Value, which the Poinder shall retain to Account of his Debt, in Preference to the other Creditors, reserving Liberty to him to rank on the remaining Sum for the full Amount of the Debt contained in his Diligence.

Directions relative to Actions of Sale of Lands, &c. raised at the Instance of Creditors before the Court of Session.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Actions of Sale of Lands, or other heritable Subjects, raised or to be raised and pursued at the Instance of Creditors before the Court of Session, upon any of the Statutes in that Behalf made, shall proceed and be carried on to a Conclusion, by actual Sale, as soon as the necessary previous Steps of a Sale are taken, whether the Ranking of the Creditors is concluded or not, unless the Court, upon Application of the Creditors, or any of them, shall find sufficient Cause to delay the Sale; any Law or practice to the contrary notwithstanding: And it shall be lawful to the Purchaser, at any Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas subsequent to the Term of Payment of the Price, to lodge the Price, with the Interest due upon it, in the Royal Bank, or Bank of Scotland, at such Interest as can be procured for it; declaring always, that by so doing, and giving Notice thereof to the Common Agent, who carried on the Sale, he shall be exonerate, the same Way as if the Price had been consigned in the Hands of the Magistrates and Town Council of Edinburgh, as required by the sixth Act of the Parliament of Scotland, in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, which Act is so far hereby repealed; and further declaring, That the Court of Session, on the Application of any of the Creditors, shall be impowered to make an Order on the Purchaser to lodge the Price and Interest at any of the said Terms subsequent to the Term of Payment in one or other of the said Banks; sufficient Intimation being always previously given both to the Purchaser and to the common Agent for the Creditors, that such Application is made, in order that all Parties may have an Opportunity to object; and in order to lessen the Number of Adjudications, and consequently the Expence upon a Bankrupt Estate, the Lord Ordinary officiating in the Court of Session, before whom any Process of Adjudication is called, shall ordain Intimation thereof to be made in the Minute Book, and on the Wall, in order that any other Creditors of the common Debtor who may think proper to adjudge his Estate, and are in Readiness for it, may produce the Instructions of their Debts, and be conjoined in the Decree of Adjudication; and a reasonable Time, not exceeding twenty Sederunt Days, shall be given for that Purpose, unless there be any Hazard from a Delay, which the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, shall judge of.

Who may be made Bankrupts.

'VI. And whereas it is for the Interest of Commerce, that the Estates of those concerned in Trade and 'Manufactures, when they are unable to answer the Demands upon them, should be disposed of and dis-'tributed among their Creditors in the most expeditious Manner, without abiding the ordinary Forms of 'Law,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, being a Merchant or Trader in Gross or by Retail, or a Banker, Broker, or Underwriter, or a Manufacturer, Artificer, or Mechanick, and in general any Person who, either for himself, or as an Agent or Factor for others, deals in the Purchase, or Sale, or Workmanship, of Goods or Commodities other than for his own Use and Consumption, or the Produce of his own Estate, or of any Subject held by him as Lessee or Tenant (and particularly excepting Landholders, and Occupiers or Tenants of Land, or other Heritages, Holders of India Stock, or of Stock in any of the Banks established by publick Authority, or in the friendly Insurance Company at Edinburgh against Fire, if such Persons be not otherwise bona fide under one or other of the foregoing Descriptions), shall be under Diligence by Horning and Caption for Debt, and shall either, in virtue thereof, be imprisoned, or retire to a Sanctuary, or fly or abscond for his personal Safety, or defend his Person by Force; or being out of Scotland, or not liable to be imprisoned by reason of Privilege or personal Protection, shall be under Diligence by Charge of Horning, attended with Arrestment, not loosed or discharged within fifteen Days, or poinding of any Part of his Moveables, or Decree of Adjudication of any Part of his heritable Estate, for Payment of Debt, at the Instance of any Creditor, it shall be lawful to any Creditor of the said Person, whose Debt shall amount to the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, or any two Creditors whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of one hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, or to any three or more Creditors whose Debts amount to the Sum of two hundred Pounds Sterling, or upwards, at any Time within four Calendar Months of the last Step of the said Dilligence, to apply, by summary Petition, to the Court of Session while the Session is sitting, or to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacation, for a Sequestration of the said Debtor's Estate, real and personal; and upon Production of the Grounds of Debt aforesaid, and the Creditor or Creditors, at whose Instance the Application is made, swearing to the Verity of their Debts before any Judge Ordinary, or Justice of Peace; and also, that they believe the Party against whom the Application is made to be a Merchant, or otherwise under the Description above set forth, and with and under the foregoing Exceptions, the said Court, or the Lord Ordinary, shall grant Warrant for citing the said Debtor, by delivering to him personally, or by leaving at his Dwelling-house, a Copy of the said Petition; or, if the said Debtor is out of Scotland, by affixing Copies upon the Market Cross of Edinburgh, Pier and Shore of Leith, and also leaving a Copy at his last Dwelling-house, or House of Business, in Scotland, to appear in Court within the Time specified in the Warrant of Citation, not being less than six, nor more than forty Days from the Date of the Citation, to show cause why Sequestration should not be awarded; and at the Time of granting such Warrant of Citation, the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, shall likewise, if desired, grant the usual Authority, at the Instance of the Petitioners, for recovering written Evidence of the said Dilligence; and upon Production of such Evidence at the Diet or Appearance, if the Debtor shall not appear either in Person, or by his Counsel or Agent, or so appearing, shall not instantly produce written Evidence of the Debt or Debts being satisfied upon which the Dilligences proceeded, and also pay or satisfy the Debt or Debts due to the Petitioner or Petitioners, or show other reasonable sonable Cause why further Proceeding should not be had, the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, shall immediately award Sequestration of the said Debtor's whole real and personal Estate.

Method of Procedure therein.

The Court, &c to appoint a Meeting of Creditors, who are to name a Factor.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Court or the Lord Ordinary shall, by the same Deliverance which awards the Sequestration, make an Order upon the Creditors to meet upon a certain Day and Hour, being not more than three Weeks from that Date, and as much sooner as Circumstances may permit; the said Meeting to be at a convenient Place, either where the Bankrupt resides, or where his Business is or was last carried on, or as near it as possible, in order to name an interim Factor upon the sequestrated Estate real and personal; which Deliverance the petitioning Creditor or Creditors shall forthwith cause to be advertised in the Edinburgh Newspapers called The Caledonian Mercury, and Edinburgh Evening Courant, otherwise the whole Proceedings to be null and void; and the said Court, or Lord Ordinary, shall at the same Time grant Commission to any resident Magistrate of the Burgh, or to the Sheriff or Stewart Depute or Substitute of the County or Stewartry where the Meeting is to be held, or, failing them, any Justice of the Peace to be named by the Court, to attend the said Meeting of Creditors, and to receive Production of their Grounds of Debt, with the Oaths thereon after mentioned, and to sign the Minutes of the Creditors, along with the Preses chosen by them; and all Questions at this Meeting shall be determined by a Majority of the Creditors in Value or Extent of Debt appearing at the said Meeting, by themselves or others authorised by them, and whose Grounds of Debt and Oaths thereon are so produced.

Factor to give Security.

VIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person chosen at the said Meeting by the Majority aforesaid as interim Factor, shall be intitled to the Office, and shall find Security for his faithful Management, to such Extent as the said Majority shall think reasonable; and the said Factor shall ingross a Copy of the Minutes of this Meeting in a Book of Sederunt, which shall be signed by the said Commissioners and by the Preses of the Meeting, and kept by the Factor as his Warrant for acting; and the principal Minutes of the said Meeting, at which the Factor is appointed, being signed by the said Commissioner, by the Preses of the Meeting, and by the Factor named and accepting of the Office, shall be transmitted by the Commissioner to the Clerk of the Sequestration, to be kept among the Records of the Court of Session.

Court, upon awarding the Sequestration, may lock up the Bankrupt's Shop, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon awarding the Sequestration, the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, shall, if desired by the petitioning Creditors, grant Warrant to the said Commissioner to seal up, and cause put under safe Custody, the Books and Papers of the Bankrupt, and to lock up his Shop, Warehouse, or other Repositories, and to keep the Keys thereof, till a Factor is named as before directed to whom they shall be delivered, and subject in the mean Time to such Orders and Directions as the said Court, or Lord Ordinary, or the said Commissioner, may think proper to give, on the Application of any Party concerned; and it shall be competent for the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, even from the Date of the Application for Sequestration, to give such interim Orders as the Circumstances of the Case may require, for preventing Embezzlement or Damage to the Effects, upon Application of any of the Creditors, and Cause shewn.

Any Merchant, &c. jointly with a Creditor for 100 l. may apply to the Court for a Sequestration of his Estate.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Merchant, or other Person described as above, and with and under the aforesaid Exceptions, whether Dilligence has been executed against him or not, shall make a joint Application along with any Creditor whose Debt shall amount to the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, or any two Creditors whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of one hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, or any three or more Creditors whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of two hundred Pounds Sterling, or upwards, and Oath being made as above to the Verity of these Debts, and the Parties, or their Agent also making Oath, to their Knowledge or Belief, of the Debtor's being under the Description which he assumes, the said Court, or the Lord Ordinary, are hereby authorised and required to award Sequestration of the Debtor's Estate, real and personal, in like Manner, and the Procedure shall go on as before directed.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Estates of all Companies carrying on Business under any of the Denominations or Descriptions above set forth, and with and under the above Exceptions, may be sequestrated upon the Application either of those intitled to act for them, with Consent of any Creditor of such Company whose Debt amounts to the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, or any two Creditors whose Debts amount to the Sum of one hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, or any three or more Creditors whose Debts amount to the Sum of two hundred Pounds Sterling, or upwards; or at the Application of such Creditor or Creditors themselves whose Debts are to the Amount already mentioned; in which last Case it must appear, that Dilligence has been done against one or more of the Partners of the Company for Payment of a Company Debt, in the same Way and Manner as is before required to found an Application against Individuals; and in either Case, the Procedure hereby directed with regard to individual Debtors shall be followed out; and it shall be sufficient to cite the Company, by leaving a Copy at the House or Shop where their Business is carried on, or where any of their managing Partners reside; or if the said Houses and Shop be shut up or deserted by them, a Copy shall be affixed at the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and Pier and Shore of Leith.

And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be necessary for the Party applying for the Sequestration to record the Petition of Sequestration, and the first Deliverance thereon, in the General Register of Inhibitions, within twenty-four Hours after the said Deliverance is pronounced; and the same shall, from the Date of the Application, be held equivalent to an Inhibition against the Debtor, for Behoof of the whole Creditors, in case of the Sequestration being finally awarded; and it shall not be in the Power of the Bankrupt, after Sequestration is awarded, to stop Proceedings by paying off the Debt on which the Dilligence and Petition aforesaid did proceed, nor shall the Proceedings be of any Effect unless the said Petition and Deliverance are so registered.

In what Cases a Sequestration may be recalled.

XIV. Provided always, That if the Debtor, against whom Sequestration has been awarded without his own Concurrence, or if any Creditor who has not concurred in, or consented to the Application, shall apprehend that the Party against whom it is awarded does not come within the Description before given, or falls under any of the Exceptions therefrom, such Debtor or Creditor shall be at Liberty, at any Time within thirty Days after Sequestration is awarded, to apply to the Court of Session, if sitting, or to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacation, setting forth the Grounds upon which the Sequestration ought to be recalled, in respect of the Description not being applicable; and this Petition being intimated to the Party at whose Instance the Sequestration was obtained, or the known Agent of that Party, and a reasonable Time given to make Answers thereto, the Court, or Lord Ordinary, shall determine summarily upon the same, and shall grant Commission, if necessary, for taking Proof of the Facts; and if upon Evidence it shall appear that the Person against whom the Sequestration is awarded, does not fall within the Meaning or Terms of this Act, as not being under any of the Descriptions above set forth, or as falling under any of the Exceptions therefrom, the Sequestration shall be recalled; or, if the Petition is found to be without sufficient Ground, it shall be dismissed; but in the mean Time, until this Matter is finally determined, the Proceedings under the Sequestration shall go on, as if no such Application had been made.

General Meeting of the Creditors to be held for chusing a Trustee.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Factor shall, immediately after being so named, be obliged to publish an Advertisement in the Two Edinburgh Newspapers before mentioned intimating the Sequestration, and that a general Meeting of the Creditors is to be held on such Day and at such Place as the Creditors, at the Meeting before mentioned, shall have fixed in their Minutes (the said Day being not less than four, nor more than eight Weeks after the Advertisement), for the Purpose of chusing a Trustee; and in the mean Time, the Factor shall enter upon the Management of the Estate, and shall, within two Days after his Appointment, apply to the Sheriff or Stewart Depute or Substitute of the County or Stewartry where the Debtor resides, or where his Business was carried on, who is hereby authorised and required to name one Day in each of the four succeeding Weeks to be set apart for the publick Examination of the Bankrupt and of his Family, or others acquainted with his Business, in the Sheriff Court-house of the District, a Fee of one Guinea each Sitting being allowed to the Sheriff or Stewart Depute, if he officiates, or half a Guinea each Sitting to the Substitute; and such periodical Meetings being fixed, the same shall be immediately published by the Factor in each of the two Edinburgh Newspapers before mentioned, by an Advertisement, inviting the whole Creditors to be present at such Examination, that they may have an Opportunity of putting such Questions as shall be judged of Importance for rendering the Discovery and Surrender more complete; and the said Judge shall, if necessary, issue his Warrant for apprehending the Bankrupt, or any of his Family, or others who are to be examined, if within his Jurisdiction, in order to force their Appearance; or if they be without his Jurisdiction, the Court of Session, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, shall, on the Application of the Factor, grant such Warrant for apprehending and bringing them before the Judge, who is to take the Examination, as aforesaid; and if any of these Persons shall happen to be indisposed, or otherwise unable to attend at that Time, the Court, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, may grant Commission for examining them elsewhere; and it shall be competent for the Factor or for the Trustee to apply at any Time for re-examining those Persons, upon due Advertisement given in Manner aforesaid; and the Court, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, shall likewise, in case it be necessary, grant a personal Protection to the Bankrupt, at the Application of the Factor or Trustee, for such Time as may be requisite for enabling him to attend the Diets of Examination, or may grant Warrant to Messengers at Arms, or other Officers of the Law, to bring his Person out of Prison, in order to attend such Meetings, and thereafter to carry him back to Prison.

'So help me GOD.'

And if the Perſon thus called upon is a Member of a Company, and examined upon the Company's Affairs, the Terms of this Oath ſhall only be ſo varied by the Judge as to make it applicable to the Caſe; which Oath being annexed to the foreſaid Proceedings in the Book of Sederunt, ſhall alſo be ſubſcribed by the Sheriff or Stewart Depute or Subſtitute; and if the Bankrupt be one of the People called Quakers, it ſhall be ſufficient to take his ſolemn Affirmation upon the Matters contained in the ſaid Oath, and likewiſe in all other Caſes where an Oath is required by this Statute: And all Perſons convicted of taking the above Oath or Affirmation falſely, ſhall be held as guilty of Perjury, and of fraudulent Bankruptcy, and puniſhed accordingly, and for ever rendered incapable of holding any Office of Publick Truſt or Emolument; declaring alſo, That if the Bankrupt ſhall wilfully fail to exhibit a fair State of his Affairs, or to make Oath in Terms above ſpecified, or to make a complete Surrender, he ſhall be conſidered as a fraudulent Bankrupt, and puniſhed accordingly, and rendered ever after incapable of holding any Office of Publick Truſt or Emolument; and in either Caſe ſhall forfeit every Benefit or Privilege ariſing from the Statute, and be accounted infamous, and incapable of giving Evidence in a Court of Juſtice, or of ſitting or acting on any Aſſize or Jury.

XVIII. Provided always, That if the Factor named at the firſt Meeting is not choſen Truſtee, he ſhall be allowed ſuch Gratification for his Trouble, to be retained by him out of the Effects in his Hands, or to be paid by the Truſtee, as a Majority of the Creditors in Value at the ſaid Meeting ſhall think reaſonable; and the Truſtee ſhall find Security for his Intromiſſions and faithful Management, unleſs the ſame be diſpenſed with by four fifths in Number and Value of the ſaid Meeting, the ſaid diſpenſing Reſolution to be always ingroſſed in their Minutes; and the Truſtee ſhall be entitled to an Allowance in Name of Commiſſion for his Management, on all Sums of Money which he ſhall recover, at ſuch Rate per Cent. as ſhall be adjuſted or fixed by a Majority in Value at the ſaid Meeting, or at any after Meeting of the Creditors advertiſed for that Purpoſe; and it ſhall be competent at any Time for one fourth of the Creditors in Value to apply ſummarily to the Court of Seſſion for having him removed, upon Cauſe ſhown; and a Majority of Creditors in Value, at any Meeting to be advertiſed for the Purpoſe, ſhall likewiſe be entitled to remove, or to accept of the Reſignation of any Truſtee; and in either of theſe Caſes, or in the Event of the acting Truſtee's Death, the next Truſtee in Succeſſion ſhall be entitled to act; and upon Failure of the ſeveral Truſtees originally named, by Death or otherwiſe, it ſhall be competent to any two of the Creditors to apply to the Court of Seſſion, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, to cauſe a Meeting of the Creditors be held, upon due Advertiſement, for chuſing a new Truſtee or Truſtees in Succeſſion; and in any of theſe Caſes the new acting Truſtee ſhall immediately call to Account his Predeceſſors in Office, or their Heirs and Repreſentatives, and ſhall be veſted with the ſame Powers, and ſubject to the ſame Rules and Regulations, as any former acting Truſtee.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Minutes of this Meeting of the Creditors electing a Truſtee, or Succeſſion of Truſtees, ſhall be forthwith reported to the Court, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, by the Truſtee who is to act, a Copy of them being previouſly entered in the Sederunt Book; and the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, ſhall then iſſue an Order upon the Bankrupt, to execute and deliver, within a certain reaſonable Time to be ſpecified in the Interlocutor, a Diſpoſition or Diſpoſitions making over to the ſaid Truſtee or Truſtees in their Order his whole real and perſonal Eſtate, wherever ſituated, and which ſhall ſpecially deſcribe and convey the Subjects ſo far as they are known, or ſo far as the Truſtees ſhall think it neceſſary, and contain all proper Clauſes for effectually veſting the Right in him, with full Powers of Sale, for Behoof of the Creditors; and if the Bankrupt ſhall refuſe to obey ſuch Order, the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, may puniſh him by Impriſonment; and in that Caſe, or in caſe of the ſaid Bankrupt being abſent from Scotland, or for any other Reaſon not granting ſuch Diſpoſition within the Time that he is ordered by the Interlocutor ſo to do, the Court, or the Lord Ordinary, ſhall, upon the Application of the Truſtee, iſſue an Act or Decree, finding the Property of the whole ſequeſtrated Eſtate and Effects, real and perſonal, to be in the ſaid Truſtee or Truſtees in Succeſſion, for Behoof of the Creditors, and adjudging, decerning, and declaring the whole Lands and other heritable Eſtate within the Juriſdiction of the Court ſpecially enumerated, and which were the Property of the Bankrupt, to pertain and belong to the Truſtee or Truſtees in Succeſſion irredeemably, to the End that the ſame may be ſold and Bankrupt, refuſing to obey the Order of the Court, may be impriſoned, &c.

and converted into Money for Payment of the Creditors; which Adjudication shall have the same Effect as if the Bankrupt had executed the Conveyance before mentioned; and the Factor originally named shall immediately deliver over to the Trustee every Part of the Bankrupt's Estate or Effects in his Possession, and all Securities taken for the same, or any Part thereof, and pay such Balance as may appear to be due by him upon settling his Accounts; declaring always, that if any Part of the Bankrupt's Property happens to be entailed, the Conveyance to be executed by him, or the Decree of Adjudication to be obtained by the Trustee, shall only be understood to carry that Right and Interest in the Estate which the Bankrupt himself has, and which his Creditors can validly attach.

Disposition of the heritable Estate to be registered in the Register of Abbreviates of Adjudications, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Disposition of the heritable Estate, together with the Order of the Court, or Lord Ordinary, on which it proceeds, or failing thereof, the Decree of Adjudication of the Court, or of the Lord Ordinary, shall, within Sixty Days of the Date thereof, be registered by the Trustee in the Register of Abbreviates of Adjudications, and shall have the Effect to entitle the Trustee, for Behoof of the whole Creditors, to rank in the same Manner upon the heritable Estate, as if it had been a proper Decree of Adjudication obtained at the Date of the Interlocutor awarding the Sequestration, accumulating the whole Debts Principal and Interest, as at that Period, and adjudging for Security or Payment thereof, so as to rank pari passu with any prior effectual Adjudication led within Year and Day of the same; and the said Disposition or Adjudication shall not be reduceable upon any of the Statutes concerning bankrupts, nor struck at by any Inhibition, or other legal Interpellation; saving however, in the ranking upon the Price, any other Effect which such Inhibition or Interpellation may have with regard to Contractions of the Debtor posterior to the Date thereof.

How the Titles requisite to vest heritable Property shall be made up in the Person of the Trustee, &c.

XXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the said Disposition, or Decree of Adjudication, the feudal Titles requisite by the Law of Scotland to vest heritable Property, shall and may be made up either in the Person of the Trustee, or in the Person of the Purchaser from him, in virtue of such Trustee's Conveyance, agreeable to the Forms of the Law of Scotland; and each Trustee succeeding a prior Trustee, through his Death, Resignation, or Removal, unless substituted to him at his first Nomination, shall be vested in the Right either by Disposition from the former Trustee, or by Adjudication obtained by the new Trustee on a summary Application to the Court, or Lord Ordinary, as before; and the Superior shall, if required, be obliged to enter the Trustee or Trustees in the same Manner as he is directed by an Act made in the Twentieth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, for abolishing Ward-holdings, without being intitled to more than One Composition for the Whole; and if the Trustee shall afterwards discover any other heritable Subjects belonging to the Bankrupt, and which belonged to him at the Date of the Application for Sequestration, the same shall either be disponed or adjudged in Manner before directed, and to the same Effect; and in case the Bankrupt's own Titles to any Part of the Estate, real or personal, which belonged to him at that Period, or to which he had then succeeded as apparent Heir, nearest in Kin, or otherwise, to any Predecessor, have not been so completed as to vest the Right properly in him, the Factor or Trustee shall take the most safe and eligible Method of completing the Bankrupt's Title, in such Way and Manner as the Law requires; declaring always, that the Rules of Preference or Ranking between the Creditors of the Ancestor, and those of the Heir by the Law of Scotland, are not meant to be altered by any Thing contained in this Act.

Bankrupt's whole Estate, at the Period of Sequestration, to be a Fund of Division among his Creditors prior to that Date.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the whole Estate, whether real or personal, belonging to the Bankrupt at the Period of the Sequestration, shall become a Fund of Division among those who were his Creditors prior to the Date of the Application, and none else, according to their due Order of Preference; and all Payments made by a Debtor to any of his Creditors after such Application, shall be void and ineffectual to the Receivers in the Event of a Sequestration taking place, and the Factor or Trustee shall be intitled to recover the Money so paid as Part of the Bankrupt's Estate; and all Transactions of the Bankrupt subsequent to the Date of the Application, from which any Prejudice may arise either to the Creditors or to Third Parties, shall be null and void; declaring always, that nothing herein contained shall oblige a bona fide Purchaser of any Part of the moveable Effects from the Bankrupt while in Possession, and for a Price truly paid, to restore the Effects so purchased; nor the Debtor of a Bankrupt, who has paid his Debt to him bona fide without knowing of the Bankruptcy, to pay it a Second Time to the Factor or Trustee.

Effects devolving upon the Bankrupt, after the Application, and before a final Division.

XXIII. Providing always, That if, after the said Application, and before a final Division among the Creditors, any Estate or Effects, either real or personal, shall devolve upon the Bankrupt, either in the Way of Succession, or otherwise, he shall be obliged, immediately when such Event happens, to make a full Discovery thereof to the Factor or Trustee, and shall, if required, make Oath to the same before any Magistrate of the Borough, or Judge Ordinary of the County of his Residence, in order that the Factor or Trustee may have an Opportunity of taking such Steps as are necessary or proper for the Interest of his Constituents; and the said Factor or Trustee shall likewise give immediate Notice thereof to the Creditors, either at the first General Meeting, or by advertising a Meeting for the Purpose.

No Arrestment of a Debtor's personal Estate, within 30 Days before Application for a Sequestration shall be valid.

XXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Arrestment of a Debtor's personal Estate, or any Part of it, used at any Time within Thirty Days before an Application for a Sequestration under the Authority of this Act, shall give any Preference to the arresting Creditor in the Event of a Sequestration taking place; and the Arrestee shall be obliged to deliver the Effects arrested, or pay what he owes the Bankrupt, to the Factor or Trustee, as if such Arrestment had been used for the whole Creditors; and if the Arrestee has delivered the Effects, or paid the Money arrested to the Arrester, by virtue of a Decree forthcoming, or any other Authority whatever, the Arrester shall be obliged to pay or deliver the same to the Factor or Trustee: And in like Manner no Poinding of a Debtor's Effects not completely executed thirty Days before such Application, shall give any Right or Preference to the Poinder in the Event of a Sequestration taking place, but the Poinder shall be obliged to deliver to the Factor or Trustee the Goods poinded, if not sold or disposed of, when he is required so to do; and if they are then sold or disposed of, he shall be liable to account to the said Factor or Trustee for the appraised Value of the Goods pointed, and shall make Part of the Fund to be distributed among the Creditors.

Proviso.

XXV. Provided always, That all Arresters and Pointers who shall be deprived of the Benefit of their respective Diligences in Manner aforesaid, shall be intitled to demand or retain the Expence laid out by them in prosecuting such Diligences.

Trustee to recover the whole Estate of the Bankrupt, for the Benefit of his Creditors.

XXVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Trustee, when appointed, shall forthwith proceed to recover, in the speediest and most effectual Manner, the whole Estate under his Management or Power, whether at Home or in Foreign Parts, in order that the same may be distributed among the Creditors; and he shall be obliged to follow those Directions and Rules, with regard to the Recovery, Management, and Sale of the Estate real and personal, which are laid down by a Majority of the Creditors in Value, convened at the Meeting by which he was appointed, or any subsequent Meeting; and besides the stated annual Meetings herein-after mentioned, the Trustee shall, if required at any Time by one-fourth of the Creditors in Value who have produced and proved their Claims, be obliged to call a General Meeting; or he himself may on any Emergency call such Meeting, sufficient previous Intimation of every occasional Meeting, and the Purpose of calling it, being always given, by Advertisement in the two Edinburgh Newspapers before mentioned, Three Weeks at least before the Meeting.

Majority of Creditors in Value to determine relative to the Sale of heritable Estates.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Part of the sequestrated Estate consists of Land, or other heritable Subjects, it shall be optional to a Majority of Creditors in Value to determine, either at the Meeting appointing the Trustee, or at any of the subsequent stated Meetings, or other Meeting called for the Purpose, whether the Trustee is to bring the said heritable Estate to judicial Sale before the Court of Session, or to dispose thereof by voluntary publick Sale; and if the latter Mode is adopted, the Sale made, after such Advertisement, and at such upset Price as shall be fixed by a Majority of Creditors in Value at any such Meeting, shall be valid and effectual, with and under the Burden of all Debts and Claims heritably secured upon the Estate, in so far as the same are preferable to the Disposition or Decree vesting the said Estate in the Trustee, and the Purchaser shall have no Concern with the Application of the Price; and if a Majority of Creditors in Value determine for a judicial Sale and Ranking, the Trustee shall be obliged forthwith to proceed in the same, and shall be intitled to carry it on, as to a Part of the Estate, without including the Whole, and without any other Proof of Bankruptcy than the Act of Sequestration; and it shall be enough to call the Bankrupt himself, and his real Creditors in Possession, upon a Citation of fifteen Days, whether they are within the Kingdom or not, and the edictal Citations shall be dispensed with.

Not to bar the Right of any preferable heritable Creditor.

XXVIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall bar the Right which any preferable heritable Creditor may have by the Law, as it stands at present, to bring his Debtor's Estate to a judicial Sale at his own Instance, unless such Sale has been previously brought at the Instance of the Trustee.

Creditors, whose Claims are objected to, may jointly bring an Action to prove the same.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Process of Ranking and Sale, the Creditors producing their Grounds or Claims of Debt, shall be intitled to prove and constitute the same, if objected to, without bringing separate Actions for that Purpose; but provided always, that the Court shall only allow a reasonable Time for so doing; and the Creditors shall be intitled to draw their Shares of the Price, in virtue of the Disposition and Adjudication before mentioned, without the Necessity of any other Adjudication; and no other Adjudication shall be competent after the Date of the Sequestration.

Trustee to lodge the Money he receives agreeably to the Appointment of a General Meeting.

XXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Trustee shall be obliged to lodge all Money he receives in such Bank, or with such Banking Company, as a Majority of Creditors in Value at any General Meeting shall appoint; and, failing such Appointment, in the Royal Bank or Bank of Scotland, and at such Interest as can be procured for the same; and never to retain in his own Hands above the Sum of fifty Pounds Sterling for the Space of ten Days, otherwise to be liable to the Creditors for seven and one half per Cent. per Annum on whatever exceeds the Sum of fifty Pounds Sterling, in Name of Interest and Damages.

An Advertisement to be published by the Trustee, requiring the Creditors to bring in their Claims.

XXXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Trustee shall, within ten Days after his Appointment is confirmed by the Court of Session, cause publish an Advertisement in each of the two Edinburgh Newspapers before mentioned, requiring all the Creditors to lodge with him their Claims, and Vouchers or Grounds of Debt, with their Oaths for proving the same, as directed by this Act, within nine Calendar Months after the Date of the Interlocutor awarding the Sequestration; specifying the Day when the said nine Months expire, and certifying those Creditors who shall neglect to comply with this Requisition, that they shall not be intitled to any Share in the first Distribution of the Debtor's Estate.

Further Directions to the Trustee.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Trustee shall, within one Calendar Month after the Termination of the said nine Calendar Months, make up a State of the Bankrupt's Effects that have been converted into Money, and a State of the Debts which have been proved, and lodged with him in Manner before required, calculating Interest upon each up to the Date of the Sequestration, with a Scheme or Cast dividing the free Produce of the Money so recovered among the several Creditors in these Debts according to their due Order of Ranking; which States and Scheme, together with a general State of the Bankrupt's Affairs brought down to that Period, shall lie open, for the Inspection of the Creditors or their Agents, in the Trustee's Hands for two Months longer, when a stated General Meeting of the Creditors shall be held at the Place of the Trustee's Residence, exactly at the Distance of a Year after the Sequestration, being the same Day twelve Months, or the next lawful Day thereafter, to give such Orders as may appear necessary for the future Management, and to receive their first Dividends; and the Trustee shall give Notice thereof two Months before by Advertisement in the said two Edinburgh Newspapers; and in case any of the Debts claimed upon shall be objected to, in Whole or in Part, or their Place in the Ranking disputed, or any other Objection shall be made to the Scheme, as made by the Trustee, a Share of the said Fund, corresponding to the utmost Amount of the Sums or Dividends to which the disputed Articles ticles may be intitled, shall be left in the Bank or Banking House where the Monies were deposited as aforesaid, till all such Questions are determined by the Court of Session, which the said Court is hereby authorised and required to do summarily, on the Application of the Trustee, or any other Person interested, and in such summary Process to allow a Proof of the Debts or of the Objections, if required; and if, in the Event of such Question, the said Sum, or any Part of it, shall remain unapplied to the Debt or Debts for which it was claimed, the same shall go into the Fund for any subsequent Distribution; and the Shares of Creditors not called for at the Time of Distribution, shall again be deposited on their Risque in the Hands of the Banking Company before mentioned, at such Interest as can be got for the same, which Interest so gained shall be for the general Behoof.

Court of Session to determine all Questions relative to objected Claims, &c.

XXXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That within one Calendar Month after twenty-one Calendar Months from the Date of the Sequestration, the Trustees shall make up another Scheme of Division among the Creditors, who, before the End of the said twenty-one Months, have produced in his Hands their Claims and Grounds of Debt, and Oaths of Verity, as before, together with new States of the Funds and Debts, and of the Bankrupt's Affairs in general, as before directed; which shall in like Manner remain open for Inspection for the two following Months; and the next stated General Meeting of the Creditors for receiving their second Dividends, and for the other Purposes before mentioned, shall be held after the like Advertisement exactly at the Distance of another Year, being on the same Day two Years from the Date of the Sequestration, or on the next lawful Day thereafter; and the like Procedure shall be followed out at the same Intervals of Time thereafter, and until the whole Funds of the Bankrupt are collected and distributed among his Creditors; declaring always, that no Creditor shall draw any Share of the different Distributions, unless his Grounds of Debt, and Oath on the Verity thereof, shall have been lodged with the Trustee on or before the respective Days appointed for that Purpose, but he shall be intitled, in the next Distribution which happens after the Grounds of Debt are so produced and proved, to draw out of the first End of the remaining Fund in the Trustee's Hands, a Sum equal to the former Dividend or Dividends on his Debt, with Deduction of five per Cent. on the said Dividends, which is to be retained by the Trustee for the Common Behoof, on Account of the said Creditor's Delay; and further declaring, that in making up the Schemes of Division, all Debts claimed on which are intitled to a Preference by the Law of Scotland, not altered by this Act, shall be preferred accordingly.

Trustee to make up a Scheme of Division for a second Dividend, &c.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Creditors as claim upon Debts whereof the Term of Payment is not come, may nevertheless, upon discounting the legal Interest to the Term of Payment, draw their Shares in Proportion to what remains after such Discount.

Debts claimed before actually due, shall be paid, on allowing Discount.

XXXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Creditors claiming to be ranked on the sequestrated Estate, real or personal, shall have received any partial Payment out of the Estates of other Obligants, or in consequence of any preferable Security upon any particular Subject belonging to the Bankrupt himself before the Sequestration, the said partial Payment shall be deducted from the total Amount of his Debt, and he shall only be ranked for the Balance after such Deduction; but in case such partial Payment is not recovered till after the Sequestration, he shall be intitled to rank for his full Debt without any such Deduction, but so as he shall never draw in Whole more than complete Payment of his Debt; and the Creditors of a Company shall be intitled to rank upon the Estates of the Individual Partners for the Debts due to them by the Company, deducting only what they may have received before the Sequestration as before.

Creditors claiming who have received a partial Payment, the same shall be deducted from their full Debt.

XXXVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the making Production of the Grounds of Debt along with the Oath, shall have the same Effect as to interrupting Prescription of every Kind from the Period of such Production, as if a proper Action had been raised on the said Grounds of Debt against the Bankrupt, and against the Trustee.

Production of the Grounds of Debt along with the Oath.

XXXVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Oath the Creditor deponing shall specify every Security he holds for his Debt, whether on the Estate of the Debtor, or other Obligants: And in case any Creditor shall, after the Date of the Sequestration, obtain any legal or voluntary Preference on any Estate or Subject belonging to the Bankrupt directly or indirectly, situated without the Jurisdiction of the Court, he shall be obliged to communicate and assign the same to the Trustee, for Behoof of all the Creditors, before he draws any Dividend.

Creditor, in his Oath, shall specify every Security he holds for his Debt.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Oaths of Verity upon Debts required by this Act, may be taken before any Judge Ordinary or Justice of the Peace; and where any Creditor is out of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or is under Age, or incapable to give an Oath, in all such Cases an Oath of Credulity by the Agent, Factor, Guardian, or other Manager, taken in the same Manner, shall be sufficient; but which Oaths, either by the Party himself, or any other Person acting for him, shall not supersede the Necessity of bringing legal Evidence of the Debt, if the same is objected to as unliquidated, and where such Evidence appears to be necessary in the Circumstances of the Case; and further declaring, that no Fee shall be paid by any Creditor to the Clerks of Court, or any Person whatsoever, for an Oath of Verity or Credulity as to the Debt claimed being due, or for Production of the Interest or Grounds of Debt of any Creditor unless the Debt claimed on exceeds the Sum of Ten Pounds lawful Money of Great Britain.

Oaths of Creditors may be taken before any Judge Ordinary, or Justice of Peace.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That four fifths in Value of the Creditors convened, either at the Meeting when the Trustee is chosen, or at any subsequent Meeting, shall be intitled to chuse any three of the Creditors, at whose Sight, and with whose Consent, or with the Consent of any two of them, the Trustee shall be impowered to compound and transact, either by Submission or by private Compromise, all doubtful Claims which the Bankrupt may have against others, or all Debts due to the Estate out of the other Bankrupt Subjects, and likewise all doubtful Claims or Demands made against the Estate, where the Sum claimed upon in this last Case does not exceed fifty Pounds Sterling, but not the Order of Ranking and Preference of that or any other Debt upon the Estate; and the same Majority may exempe-exempt the Truſtee from being liable for Omiſſions, and may declare whether or how far he ſhall be liable for Attornies or Factors appointed by him.

Effects, &c. of the Bankrupt, remaining three Years after the Date of Sequeſtration, to be ſold by publick Auction.

XL. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if at the Expiration of three Years from the Date of the Sequeſtration, any of the Perſonal Effects of the Bankrupt, or any Debts, whether heritable or moveable, due to him, remain ſtill unuplifted, it ſhall be in the Power of four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value, convened at any General Meeting advertiſed for the Purpoſe, to direct that ſuch remaining Debts and Effects be ſold off by publick Auction, upon three Months previous Notice publiſhed in the two Edinburgh Newſpapers before mentioned, the Sale either to be in whole or in Lots, as a Majority in Value of the Creditors ſhall direct.

Surplus of Debtor's Eſtate to be made over to him.

XLI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Surplus of every Debtor's Eſtate real or perſonal, that may remain after Payment of his Debts, and of the Expence incurred in carrying this Act into Execution, ſhall be paid or made over to the Debtor, or to his Aſſignees or Succeſſors.

Bankrupt, with Concurrence of Truſtee, and four Fifths of Creditors, may, before the final Diſtribution, apply to the Court for perſonal Protection from Diligence.

XLII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That at any Period after the Sequeſtration, and before the final Diſtribution, it ſhall be competent for the Bankrupt, with Concurrence of the Truſtee, and four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value, who have produced and proved their Debts as before, to apply to the Court of Seſſion, or to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacation, for a perſonal Protection from Dilligence for ſuch Time as the Court or the Lord Ordinary ſhall think reaſonable; and the ſame being once obtained, ſhall be renewed, if applied for in Name of the Bankrupt, with Conſent of the Truſtee alone, unleſs any of the Creditors oppoſe it; in which Caſe, the Conſent of four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value ſhall be required, as before; declaring always, that in this and all other Caſes, where Conſent of Creditors, both in Number and Value, is required, Creditors whoſe Debts are under twenty Pounds Sterling ſhall not be counted in the Number, though they are to be counted in the Value.

And, with the ſame Concurrence, after the ſecond Dividend, may petition the Court to be diſcharged of his Debts, ſo far as they affect his Perſon, or his future perſonal Eſtate.

XLIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be competent to four fifths in Number and Value of the Creditors, reckoned as before, at any Time after the Period of the ſecond Dividend, to concur with the Bankrupt in a Petition to the Court of Seſſion, praying that he may be held as finally diſcharged of all his Debts contracted before the Application for Sequeſtration, ſo far as the ſame may affect his Perſon, or any perſonal Eſtate to be acquired by him after the Date of the Diſcharge; and this Petition being intimated upon the Wall, and in the two Edinburgh Newſpapers before mentioned, the Court ſhall, at the Diſtance of not leſs than three Months thereafter, reſume the Conſideration thereof; and if no Objection is made, they ſhall pronounce an Act, or Order, in Terms of the Prayer of the Petition; but if Appearance is made by any of the Creditors, objecting the Diſcharge ought not to be granted, on Account of the Bankrupt's not having made a fair Diſcovery and Surrender of his Eſtate, or that he has refuſed to grant a Diſpoſition to the Truſtee, as ordered by the Court, or has wilfully not attended the Diets of Examination, or has been guilty of any Colluſion, or that his Bankruptcy did not ariſe from innocent Misfortunes, or Loſſes in Buſineſs, but from culpable or undue Conduct, the Court ſhall judge of theſe Objections, and allow a Proof of them, if it is thought neceſſary, and ſhall either grant or refuſe the Diſcharge, as the Nature and Juſtice of the Caſe may require; the Bankrupt always taking an Oath before the Court, or upon Commiſſion, when Judgment is pronounced in his Favour, and before the Act can be extracted, that he has faithfully complied with all the Requiſites of the Statute, and has uſed no undue Influence, nor had Recourſe to any Compromiſe with his Creditors, or any of them, to obtain their Concurrence; and if it ſhall appear that there has been any ſuch Compromiſe or private Tranſaction between the Bankrupt and any of his Creditors, the ſame is hereby declared to be unlawful; and no Action ſhall lie upon any Bill, or other Security granted in Conſequence thereof.

Such Diſcharge not to protect any heritable Property, or Equipage, he may acquire before his Debts are paid.

XLIV. Provided always, That if the Bankrupt ſhall at any Time afterwards either ſet up an Equipage, or become poſſeſſed of heritable Property, by Succeſſion or otherwiſe, before he has paid all his Debts, ſuch Equipage or Property ſhall be liable to be attached by all or any of his Creditors, whether prior or ſubſequent to the Diſcharge, as if no ſuch Diſcharge had taken place; and the ſame ſhall only be effectual to protect his Perſon or other Effects.

Allowances to be made to Bankrupts.

XLV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Bankrupt ſhall obtain a final Diſcharge, it ſhall be in the Power of four fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value, reckoned as before, convened at any Meeting thereafter, to make him an Allowance of three per Cent. upon the nett Funds divided, but not exceeding the Sum of two hundred Pounds Sterling in all, if the Dividends amount to leſs than ten Shillings in the Pound of the Debts, as they ſtood at the Period of the Sequeſtration; and five per Cent. but not exceeding the Sum of two hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling in all, if they amount to ten Shillings, and under twelve Shillings and Sixpence; or ſeven and an half per Cent. but not exceeding three hundred Pounds Sterling in all, if they amount to twelve Shillings and Sixpence, and under fifteen Shillings; or ten per Cent. but not exceeding the Sum of four hundred Pounds Sterling in all, if the Dividends amount to fifteen Shillings in the Pound, or upwards; the ſaid Allowance to be calculated on the nett Amount of the Sums reſpectively to be divided; and in making the ſeveral Dividends, the Truſtee ſhall have in View to deduct ſo much from each as ſhall leave a Fund on Hand for anſwering this Allowance, in caſe it ſhall afterwards take place; and if the Allowance ſhall in the End be refuſed, a final Dividend ſhall be made thereof among the Creditors; declaring always, that preferable Creditors who are fully ſecured, ſhall not be counted either in the Queſtion about the Allowance, or in applying for the Perſonal Protection or the Diſcharge.

Sederunt Book to contain a Record of the Proceedings of the Truſtee, &c.

XLVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Sederunt Book before mentioned ſhall contain a full Record of all the Proceedings of the Truſtee, Minutes of General Meetings, States of Accounts, Schemes of Diviſion, and all other Matters relative to the Truſt; and another Duplicate of the whole Papers and Proceedings, ingroſſed in the ſaid Book, ſhall be ſubſcribed by the Truſtee, and within fourteen fourteen Days after the Proceedings take place, or the Casts, Schemes, and Accounts are made out, shall be transmitted by him to the Clerk to the Sequestration in the Court of Session, to lie among the Records of Court; and the said Book of Sederunt, and the Bankrupt's Books and Papers, and whole other Papers in the Trustee's Hands, shall at all Times be made Patent to any Creditor who desires to see the same.

Any Sequestration left unfinished at the End of a Session, the Lord Ordinary on the Bills to complete the same, &c.

XLVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Application for Sequestration shall be made to the Court of Session when sitting, and any Thing shall be left undone at the End of any Session by the Want of Time, the Lord Ordinary on the Bills is hereby authorised and required to do every Thing necessary in Execution of this Act during the Vacation, that he is impowered to do when the Petition for Sequestration is originally presented to him; and in like Manner, when the Application for Sequestration is made to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacation, and any Thing is to be done in Time of Session, the Court shall proceed therein in the same Way as if the Petition had been originally presented to themselves.

Court of Session, pending any Appeal, may make Orders for preventing Embezzlement of Debtor's Estate.

XLVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Appeal shall be taken against any Order or Interlocutor of the Court of Session, or against any Act or Order of the Lord Ordinary upon the Bills, in the Execution of this Act, it shall be lawful and competent to the said Court in Time of Session, and Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacation, notwithstanding such Appeal, to make such Orders, and direct such Proceedings, as shall appear to be expedient for preventing the Estate of the Debtor from being embezzled, secreted, damaged, or dilapidated, while the Appeal is pendent.

On Death of a Creditor who has presented a Petition for Sequestration, any other Creditor may follow forth the same.

XLIX. And be it likewise enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Petition for Sequestration under the Authority of this Act is presented, it shall be competent for any other Creditor to concur therein, and to follow forth the same, even without the Consent or after the Death of the Creditor or Creditors originally petitioning; and the Expence disbursed therein shall be repaid by the Factor or Trustee, out of the first End of the Debtor's Estate, to the Creditor or Creditors by whom the same is disbursed; and if the Bankrupt shall happen to die in the mean Time, the Proceedings under this Act shall notwithstanding be carried on and followed out to their Conclusion, as if he were in Life.

Court of Session may establish further Regulations for executing this Act.

L. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Session to establish such further Regulations as shall appear to them most proper for carrying this Act into effectual Execution according to the true Intent thereof, and to publish the same in any Act or Acts of Sederunt, which shall be in Force in so far as is consistent with this Act.

Meeting of Creditors may appoint a Factor accountable to the Court of Session.

LI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at the Meeting held as aforesaid for appointing a Trustee on the Bankrupt's Estate, or any subsequent Meeting called for the Purpose, it is determined by a Majority of Creditors in Value, that the Estate ought to be vested in a Factor accountable to the Court of Session, and not in the Person of a Trustee; the Person chosen by the Majority in Value aforesaid shall be, by the Court of Session, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, appointed a Factor on the said Estate, and shall be vested in the same, and obliged to manage, recover, sell, and dispose of the same, and to divide the Proceeds thereof, in the same Way and Manner as the Trustee is directed by this Act, and under such Regulations as the Court of Session may think proper to lay down for his Conduct; and the Bankrupt may also in such Case be discharged, and intitled to the same Allowances and Privileges, and subject to the same Conditions as aforesaid.

This Act to extend to Women, &c.

LII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be construed by all Judges in the most beneficial Manner for promoting the Ends hereby intended; and that the same shall be extended to all Women as well as Men, who fall under the Description before recited.

Sequestrations obtained under the Act 12 Geo. III. to continue in Force six Months after the Commencement of this Act; during which Time, Creditors may apply to the Court of Session, in order to have the Sequestration renewed.

'LIV. And whereas Doubts may arise, whether any Proceedings can be held on the Sequestrations that 'have been awarded under the said Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, con-'tinued by that of the twentieth Year of his present Majesty, after the same expires;' for removing all such Doubts, it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Sequestration has been or shall be obtained under the said late Act, before it expires, the same shall continue in Force for six Months after the Commencement of this present Act; during which Time it shall be lawful and competent for any Creditor whose Debt amounts to the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, or any two Creditors whose Debts amount to the Sum of one hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, or any three or more Creditors whose Debts amount to the Sum of two hundred Pounds Sterling, or upwards, or to the Bankrupt himself, with Consent of one or more of such Creditors, to apply, by summary Petition, to the Court of Session, or the Lord Ordinary upon the Bills in Vacation, representing that the said Bankrupt is a Merchant, or otherwise under the Description of this present Act, and therefore praying to have the Sequestration renewed, with the Addition of all Lands and other heritable Subjects belonging to the Bankrupt within Scotland; and upon Production of their Grounds of Debt, and making Oath as required in other Cases of Sequestration under this Act, the same Regulations shall be followed out as if there had been no previous Sequestration of the said Bankrupt's personal Effects but saving any Right which the Creditors have acquired by the said former Sequestration; and in case the Creditors shall name a new Factor or Trustee under this present Act, the former Factor or Trustee shall be obliged to denude in his Favour, and convey and deliver all Effects, Monies, Papers, Books, Documents, and Writings, of every Kind, in his Hands, in any Shape relating to the sequestrated Estate, to the said new Factor or Trustee, for Behoof of the Creditors; and if the Case does not fall within the Description of this present Act, it shall be lawful and competent for any one or more of the Creditors, but not for the Bankrupt himself, to apply to the said Court, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, by summary Petition, within the said Time, praying that the Sequestration of the personal Effects shall still subsist, and be carried on under such Regulations as the Court shall think proper to devise or appoint, consistently with the general Plan of the said late Act of Parliament; and to the Effect of obtaining an equal Distribution of such personal Estate, in Terms of the said late Act; which the Court, or Lord Ordinary, may allow, unless sufficient Cause is shewn to the contrary.

So much of the Act 12 Geo. III. as relates to Bills and Promissory Notes, made perpetual.

'LV. 'WHEREAS there are ſituate within the Pariſh of Saint George the Martyr in Southwark, in the County of Surrey, the following Priſons; (videlicet,) the King's Bench Priſon, the Priſon of his Majeſty's Palace Court, called The Marſhalſea, the common Gaol of the ſaid County of Surrey, called The New Gaol, and the Houſe of Correction for the ſaid County, called The New Bridewell: And whereas the Rules of the ſaid King's Bench Priſon extend over the Whole of the ſaid Pariſh, except a ſmall Part thereof; and great Numbers of Priſoners are permitted to live out of the ſaid Priſon, but within the ſaid Rules; many of whom, with large Families, and in diſtreſſed Circumſtances, rent Houſes, or Parts of Houſes, or Lodgings ready-furniſhed, which making them liable to be rated, and to pay Pariſh Rates and Taxes, they would thereby gain Settlements, and many of which Priſoners and their Families have become chargeable to the ſaid Pariſh, and of courſe heavy and grievous Burthens on the Inhabitants: And whereas many Perſons gain Settlements in the ſaid Pariſh, by living as yearly hired Servants with Priſoners reſiding within the ſaid Priſon, or the ſaid Rules, ſeveral of which Servants being Women of bad Character, become, together with their Baſtard Children, chargeable to the ſaid Pariſh: And whereas the Families of Perſons being Priſoners in the Marſhalſea Priſon, County Gaol, or Houſe of Correction, are frequently ſent from the ſaid Priſons ſick, or otherwiſe diſtreſſed, to the Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, for Relief, and are by them ſupported, and, when able, removed to their reſpective Places of Settlement, if the ſame can be found out; which brings many heavy Expences on the ſaid Pariſh, ſome of ſuch Places of Settlement having proved to be at very great Diſtances from the ſaid Pariſh: And whereas the ſeveral extraordinary Expences before mentioned greatly enhance the Diſtreſs of the ſaid Pa-

CAP. XXV.

An Act to enable the Corporation of the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, to sell their Taxes of certain Lands within the Middle and South Levels, Part of the said Great Level, which have been or may be dug for Turf; and to apply the Money arising from such Sale, towards discharging the Bond Debts of the said Corporation upon Account of those Levels.

Preamble. Recital of an Act 15 Car. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for settling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, it was enacted, That William then Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of Francis then late Earl of Bedford, and of the said Earl William, their Heirs and Assigns, in such Manner as therein mentioned, should be a Body Politick and Corporate, in Deed and Name, and have Succession for ever, by the Name of, The Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens; and for the Continuance of the said Corporation in Succession for ever, the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, were to be chosen annually in Manner therein mentioned; and the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Conservators, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Conservators, or any of them, were to be two, were thereby empowered to lay Taxes, from Time to Time, on ninety-five thousand Acres of Land within

'the ſaid Level (allotted as a Recompence for draining the ſaid Level), for the Support, Maintenance, 'and Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and to levy the ſame with Penalties: And, after reciting that 'twelve thouſand Acres, Part of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, had been deſigned and intended for 'his then late Majeſty, and ſet forth in Severalty, and that his ſaid then late Majeſty had been in Poſ-'ſeſſion thereof, and had granted two thouſand Acres, Parcel thereof, to Jerome Earl of Portland, his 'Heirs and Aſſigns, who had ſold and granted the ſame to other Perſons, it was by the ſaid Act enacted, 'That the ſaid two thouſand Acres ſhould be veſted in ſuch Perſons, ſubject, with the Reſidue of the ſaid 'ninety-five thouſand Acres, to all Taxes and Charges neceſſary and conducing to the Preſervation of the 'ſaid Great Level from drowning: And it was thereby further enacted, That the eighty-three thouſand 'Acres, Remainder of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, ſhould be veſted in the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, 'and Commonalty, of the ſaid Company of Conſervators of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, and their 'Succeſſors, in Truſt for the ſaid William Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of the 'ſaid Earl Francis and Earl William, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in ſuch Parts and Proportions as they then 'held the ſame, ſubject nevertheleſs and liable to the Payment of all Taxes and Charges as aforeſaid; and 'the ſaid ten thouſand Acres, whereof his ſaid then late Majeſty had been in Poſſeſſion as aforeſaid, were 'thereby veſted in his then Majeſty, ſubject to the like Taxes: And whereas, by another Act of Par-'liament, made and paſſed in the twentieth Year of his ſaid late Majeſty King Charles the Second, in-'tituled, An Act for the Taxing and Aſſeſſing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of the 'Fens, it was enacted, That all Taxes impoſed or to be impoſed for Preſervation of the ſaid Level 'ſhould be aſſeſſed upon the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres, Parcel of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, 'by a gradual Acre Tax of different Sorts and Values of Land; and Surveyors and Valuers were thereby 'appointed to digeſt the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres into a Number of Sorts and Degrees, and to 'make Returns thereof into the Fen-office, according to which the ſame were in future to be taxed; and 'the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres, Reſidue of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, were to be rated at a 'Medium of the ſaid Tax: And whereas, in purſuance of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, the Surveyors 'thereby appointed did ſet out the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres into eleven Sorts or Degrees of Land, 'to be rated and taxed in Manner following; that is to ſay, For a ſingle Tax Four-pence per Acre on the 'firſt Sort of Land, Eight-pence per Acre on the ſecond Sort, and ſo encreaſing Four-pence upon every 'Sort, the eleventh Sort to be taxed at three Shillings and Eight-pence per Acre; and all greater or leſs 'Sums which the ſaid Corporation ſhould have occaſion to levy and raiſe were to be aſſeſſed according to 'that Proportion; and the ſaid Valuations were returned by the ſaid Surveyors to the Fen-office; and 'the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres have ſince been taxed by a gradual Acre-tax, according to the 'Degrees and Proportions ſo ſet out, and the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres at a Medium of ſuch Tax: 'And whereas the ſaid Great Level was divided into three Parts, known and diſtinguiſhed by the Names 'of the North Level, the Middle Level, and the South Level: And whereas the yearly Taxes and Re-'venues of the ſaid Levels having been inſufficient for ſupporting the Works for draining and preſerving 'the ſame, the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, were obliged to borrow Money at Intereſt for 'that Purpoſe, and by Means thereof contracted very large Debts, ſome of which were incurred gene-'rally upon account of the whole of the ſaid great Level, ſome upon account of the ſaid North Level 'only, and others upon account of the ſaid Middle and South Levels: And whereas, by an Act of Par-'liament, paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, 'the ſaid Corporation was diſcharged from a Debt of eighteen thouſand nine hundred and thirteen Pounds, 'eleven Shillings, and Nine-pence, due to the then Duke of Bedford and Earl of Lincoln, which had 'been incurred upon account of the ſaid North Level; and they were in conſequence of the ſaid Act diſ-'charged of one thouſand eight hundred Pounds, by the ſaid Act provided for diſcharging the Pro-'portion of the ſaid North Level in a Debt of fourteen thouſand three hundred Pounds then due from 'the ſaid Corporation upon account of the whole of the ſaid great Level; but the ſaid Corporation re-'mained liable to a Debt of twelve thouſand five hundred Pounds (Reſidue of the ſaid fourteen thouſand 'three hundred Pounds), and to a Debt of fifteen thouſand nine hunderd and forty Pounds (making toge-'ther twenty-eight thouſand four hundred and forty Pounds), upon account of the ſaid Middle and South 'Levels, owing to ſundry Perſons upon Bonds from the ſaid Corporation under their Common Seal; and 'the Taxes and Revenues ariſing from the ſaid North Level were by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act diſ-'charged from the ſaid Debts, and were not to be liable to any future Debts which might be contracted 'by the ſaid Corporation for or upon account of the ſaid Middle and South Levels; and the Taxes and 'Revenues ariſing from the ſaid Middle and South Levels were not to be liable to any Debts thereafter 'to be contracted for or upon account of the ſaid North Level: And whereas, by another Act of Par-'liament, paſſed in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, 'reciting, (among other Things) That the ſaid Debt of twenty-eight thouſand four hundred and forty 'Pounds had been reduced to twenty-ſeven thouſand four hundred and forty Pounds, it was enacted, 'That, during ſuch Time as any Debt ſhould be due upon account of the ſaid Middle and South Levels, 'all ſuch Parts of the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres as lie within thoſe Levels, or either of them, 'ſhould be yearly taxed with a ſingle gradual Acre-tax, and ſuch Parts of the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres 'as lie within thoſe Levels with a Medium of ſuch Tax; but it was provided that the ſaid Corporation 'might aſſeſs the ſame with any future Tax in the ſame Manner they might have done before the paſſing 'of the ſaid Act; and it was thereby further enacted, That, in lieu of the then Bonds for ſecuring the ſaid 'Debt of twenty-ſeven thouſand four hundred and forty Pounds, the ſaid Corporation ſhould give other 'Bonds, under the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, for the reſpective Sums due to the Perſons 'poſſeſſed of the then Bonds, ſpecifying in ſuch new Bonds that the Money ſecured thereby was due and 'owing upon account of the ſaid Middle and South Levels; and the Taxes and Revenues of thoſe Le-'vels were thereby made a Security for, and charged with, the Payment of the Sums mentioned in ſuch 'Bonds, and the Intereſt thereof; and the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Conſervators, were thereby em-'powered to borrow upon Bonds, under the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, ſuch Sums of Money

Recital of an Act 20 Car. II. for taxing 83,000 Acres (Parcel of the 95,000) by a gradual Acre Tax, and 12,000 Acres at a Medium of ſuch Tax. The Lands ſet out into 11 Sorts or Degrees, according to which the ſame have ſince been taxed.

The Great Level divided into Three Parts.

By an Act 27 Geo. II. the North Level ſeparated from the Middle and South Levels.

By 29 Geo. II. new Bonds directed to be given by the Corporation for the Debt due on account of the Middle and South Levels.

'as they should judge necessary, for the Use of the said Middle and South Levels, not increasing the 'Debt of the said Corporation, upon account of those Levels, beyond the Sum of thirty-two thousand 'Pounds, declaring, in the Bonds given for such Sums, that the same were due and owing upon Account of 'the said Middle and South Levels; and the Taxes and Revenues of the said Middle and South Levels 'were thereby made a Security for the Monies so to be borrowed on Account of those Levels; and such 'Bonds were thereby made assignable or transferrable: And whereas, in pursuance of the last-mentioned 'Act, new Bonds were given by the said Corporation for the said Debt of twenty-seven thousand four 'hundred and forty Pounds upon Account of the said Middle and South Levels, according to the Di- 'rections of the said Act; and further Sums were borrowed on Bond for the Use of those Levels: And 'whereas, by another Act of Parliament, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 'reciting, or taking Notice, that the Debt of the said Corporation, upon Account of the said Middle 'and South Levels, was then encreased to the Sum of thirty thousand seven hundred Pounds, the said 'Corporation was empowered to borrow upon Bonds, under the Common Seal, any Sums for the Use 'of the said Middle and South Levels, so as that the Debt of the said Corporation, upon Account of 'those Levels, including the then Debt of thirty thousand seven hundred Pounds, should not at any 'Time be made to exceed in the Whole the Sum of forty-four thousand Pounds, declaring in such Bonds 'that the Money secured thereby was due and owing upon Account of the said Middle and South Le- 'vels: And it was thereby enacted, That, during such Time as the Debts of the said Corporation, 'upon Account of the said Middle and South Levels, should exceed the Sum of thirty-two thousand 'Pounds, all such Parts of the said eighty-three thousand Acres as lie within those Levels, should be 'yearly assessed and charged with a Quarter or Fourth Part of a single gradual Acre-tax, over and above 'the single gradual Acre-tax with which the same were then charged, by the said Act of the twenty- 'ninth Year of his said late Majesty King George the Second, and such Part of the said twelve thousand 'Acres as laid within those Levels with a Medium of such further Tax; but it was provided, that it 'should be lawful for the said Corporation to charge or assess such further Taxes thereon as they might 'have done before the making of the said Act; and all the Taxes and Revenues of the said Corporation, 'arising from the said Middle and South Levels, were thereby made a Security for the Payment of the 'aforesaid Debt of thirty thousand seven hundred Pounds, and of such other Sums as should be bor- 'rowed on Account of those Levels, and the Interest thereof: And whereas, in pursuance of the said 'last mentioned Act, several Sums were borrowed for the Purposes thereof, by the said Corporation, upon 'Bonds under their Common Seal, on account of the said Middle and South Levels, by Means whereof 'the Debt of the said Corporation, upon account of the said Middle and South Levels, is now en- 'creased to the Sum of thirty-five thousand eight hundred Pounds, for which the Taxes and Revenues 'of the said Corporation, arising from those Levels, are a Security as aforesaid: And whereas the Fuel 'principally made use of in several Towns, Villages, and Hamlets, within the said Middle and South 'Levels, is Turf or Peat dug out of Lands therein; and divers Parts of the said ninety-five thousand 'Acres of Land, commonly called Adventure Land, so taxed and taxable as aforesaid, lying within the 'said Middle and South Levels, have been heretofore cut or dug for Turf, and the same, and other Parts 'of such Adventure Lands, may be fit to be cut for that purpose; and it will be expedient to enable the 'said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, to sell the said Tax or Taxes, wherewith such Lands as 'have been so heretofore cut, or now are or hereafter may be fit to cut, for Turf, are now charged by 'virtue of the several Acts of Parliament aforesaid, or any of them, or wherewith the same might be 'hereafter charged, by virtue of the Power of Taxation, vested in the said Corporation by the said Acts, 'or any of them, and to apply the Money arising from such Sale towards Discharge of the said Bond 'Debts of the said Corporation, upon account of the said Middle and South Levels:' May it therefore please your Majesty, upon the humble Petition of the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the said Great Level of the Fens, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governor, Bailiffs, and Conservators of the said Corporation, or any five or more of them, whereof the Governor and Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, to sell and dispose of the said Tax or Taxes, wherewith such Parts of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, lying within the said Middle and South Levels, or either of them, as have been heretofore cut, or now are or hereafter may be fit or proper to cut, for Turf, are now charged or chargeable, by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament aforesaid, or any of them, or wherewith the same Lands might be hereafter charged or assessed by virtue of the Power of Taxation vested in the said Corporation by the said Acts, or any of them, for such Consideration or Considerations in Money as can be agreed upon between the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Conservators, or any five or more of them (whereof the Governor and Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two), and the respective Owners of such Lands and Grounds: And that all and every Sums and Sum of Money, so agreed to be paid as the Consideration or Considerations of such Sale or Sales, shall be paid to the Re- ceiver-general for the Time being of the said Corporation, to be applied in Manner herein-after men- tioned; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Corporation, and they are hereby empowered and required, by any Instrument or Instruments in Writing under their Common Seal, ab- solutely to convey, release, and extinguish the said Tax or Taxes so sold, and the said Power now vested in the said Corporation of taxing the said Lands and Grounds, the Tax or Taxes whereof shall have been so purchased and paid for as aforesaid; and then and from thenceforth, as well the said Tax or Taxes wherewith the said Lands are now charged by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament aforesaid, or any of them, as also the Power now vested in the said Corporation of taxing the same Lands, shall, as to, for, and concerning such Lands as shall be particularly specified and described in such Instrument or In- struments, and the Tax or Taxes, and Power of Taxation of which shall have been so purchased and

' WHEREAS, by an Act, made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for making a Navigable Cut or Canal from the River Trent, at or near Wilden Ferry, in the ' County of Derby, to the River Mersey, at or near Runcorn Gap), certain Persons therein mentioned and ' described were united into one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The Company of Proprietors ' of the Navigation from the Trent to the Mersey; with Power and Authority, at their own Costs and ' Charges,

CAP. XLV.

An Act for regulating the Proceedings of the Court of Justiciary, and Circuit Courts, in Scotland.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second, (intituled, An Act for taking away and abolishing the Heretable Jurisdictions in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for making Satisfaction to the Proprietors thereof; and for restoring such Jurisdictions to the Crown; and for making more effectual Provision for the Administration of Justice throughout that Part of the United Kingdom, by the King's Courts and Judges there; and for obliging all Persons acting as Procurators, Writers, or Agents in the Law in Scotland to take the Oaths; and for rendering the Union of the two Kingdoms more complete;) it is amongst other things enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Party or Parties conceiving himself or themselves aggrieved by any Interlocutor, Decree, Sentence, or Judgement, of any of the inferior Judges therein mentioned, concerning Matters criminal, of whatever Nature or Extent the same may be, except all Cases which infer the Loss of Life, or Demembration, or in Matters civil, where the Subject Matter of the Suit did not exceed in Value the Sum of twelve Pounds Sterling, to complain and seek Relief against the same by Appeal to the next Circuit Court of the Circuit wherein such inferior Court shall lie, to be proceeded in before the said Circuit Court, in the Way and Manner therein directed; and it is thereby enacted, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, the Circuit Court shall be regularly held twice in every Year, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and the Judges thereof shall continue by the Space of six Days at the least, at each Town or Place where the Circuit Courts shall be held for the Dispatch of Business: And whereas it has been found from Experience, that few Appeals have been taken or brought from the inferior Courts to the Circuit Courts, either in Matters criminal or civil, Parties conceiving themselves aggrieved by the Judgements or Decrees of the inferior Courts, choosing to take their Appeals by Advocation or Suspension, and to have the same heard and discussed before the Courts of Justiciary and Session, in the Course of Law as formerly established, rather than by the summary Remedy of Appeal to the Circuit Courts, whereby one Branch of Business in these Circuit Courts is greatly abridged, and thereby the Continuance of the Judges at each Circuit Town for the Space of six Days is become unnecessary: And whereas the Judges continuing at any Circuit Town for a longer Time than may be necessary for dispatching and finishing the Business brought before them, is attended with many Inconveniencies to the Publick, and an unnecessary Expence to the Judges, Jury, and whole Members of Court, as well as the Sheriffs and inferior Magistrates, who, by Law, are obliged to attend the Judges while they continue at the Circuit Towns; for Remedy whereof,' may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Justiciary, and the said Court is hereby authorised and required, at the Time of settling and appointing the Spring and Autumn Circuits, that is to say, between the first and twentieth Days of March, and first and twentieth Days of August, in each Year, by an Act or Minute to be recorded in the Books of Adjournal, to declare and determine how long the Judge or Judges shall continue and remain in each Circuit Town or Place of the respective Districts; at the Expiration of which Time so to be limited and declared, the Justice-Ayre at such Town or Place shall be concluded and ended, the Jury, Sheriffs, and other Magistrates, discharged from their Attendance, and the Judge or Judges not obliged to continue longer in such Town or Place; any Thing in the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Preamble. 20 Geo. II. cap. 43, recited.

Court of Justiciary to determine how long the Judges shall remain in each Circuit Town.

II. Provided always, That if any Trial or Matter Civil or Criminal shall happen to be begun or entered upon, and not concluded and determined, before elapsing of the Time so to be limited and declared for the Judge or Judges continuing in each Circuit Town or Place, it shall nevertheless be proceeded in, and the Judge or Judges, and Jury, shall not be at Liberty to depart or leave the said Town or Place till the same is concluded and determined: And provided also, That the Judge or Judges of the Circuit Courts shall continue, and the Sheriffs and other Officers shall attend them, by the Space of three whole Days at the least at each Town or Place where the Circuit shall be held, but that the Jury shall be discharged from their Attendance as soon as the Business may admit.

All Trials begun before the limited Time is elapsed, shall be finished. Judges, Sheriffs, &c. to continue three whole Days in each Town.

'III. And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Trial and Punishment of High Treason, and Misprision of High Treason, in the Highlands of Scotland; and for abrogating the Practice of taking down the Evidence in Writing in certain criminal Prosecutions; and for making some further Regulations relating to Sheriffs Depute and Stewarts Depute, and their Substitutes; and for other Purposes therein mentioned;' and reciting, 'That whereas the taking down and reducing into Writing the Evidence given in criminal Causes and Prosecutions (not extending to the Loss of Life, or to Demembration) before the Court of Justiciary, and the Circuit Courts, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, had, by Experience, been found very inconvenient, and to occasion great Delay as well as Expence; it is thereby enacted,' That, from and after the first Day of July, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Justiciary, and the said respective Circuit Courts, to proceed in, try, and determine, all Causes and Prosecutions before them for any 'Crime

Recital of 21 Geo. II. cap. 19.

'Crime or Crimes not inferring the Punishment of Death, or Demembration, whereupon the Verdict of 'an Assize or Jury is to pass, upon examining and hearing the Evidence of the Witness or Witnesses 'adduced or examined in any such Cause or Prosecution viva voce, without reducing into Writing the 'Testimony of any such Witness or Witnesses; and that the Practice of taking down and reducing into 'Writing the Testimony of Witnesses in such Cases, be, and the same is thereby abrogated and abolished:

Alteration introduced by the said Act found to be beneficial.

'And whereas the Alteration introduced in the Trial of the lesser Crimes by the above Act has been found, 'by Experience, to be attended with important and salutary Consequences: And whereas the taking 'down and reducing into Writing the Evidence given in the Trial of Crimes, which may infer the Punish-'ment of Death, or Demembration, as now practised in the Court of Justiciary, and Circuit Courts, has 'been found, by long Experience, to be attended with great Inconveniencies, by prolonging Trials to 'such a Length, as has been found dangerous to the Health of the Judges, Counsel, and Jury, whereby 'the best Jurymen are often deterred from attending such Service; and those who do attend, after being 'exhausted with the Fatigue of such long Trials, are little able to discharge their Duty in reconsidering the 'whole Evidence as taken down at such Length in Writing, in order to form their Verdict;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Justiciary, and the said respective Circuit Courts, to proceed in, try, and determine all Causes and Prosecutions before them, for any Crime or Crimes inferring the Punishment of Death, or of Demembration, in the same Manner as is now practised in Prosecutions for lesser Crimes, by the Verdict of an Assize, or Jury, upon examining and hearing the Evidence of the Witness or Witnesses adduced or examined in any such Cause or Prosecution vice voce, without reducing into Writing the Testimony of any such Witness or Witnesses.

Court of Justiciary, and Circuit Courts may try Causes for capital Offences in the same Manner as those for less Crimes.

IV. Provided always, That if in the Trial of any of the Crimes which may infer the Punishment of Death, or Demembration, it shall appear to the Judges more expedient to take down and reduce into Writing the Testimony of all, or any Number of the Witnesses, according to the present Practice, it shall be lawful for them to proceed in that Manner; any Thing in this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Discretionary Power given to the Judges.

V. Provided also, That in all such Trials and Prosecutions, whether the Evidence be reduced into Writing, or be taken from the Witnesses viva voce, without reducing the same into Writing, the Counsel on both Sides, and the Pannel, or Prisoner, may interrogate the Witnesses upon all pertinent and legal Questions, and immediately before the Assize or Jury shall be inclosed, the Evidence shall be summed up by the Judge, or one of the Judges, before whom such Trial shall be had.

Counsel, or Prisoner, may interrogate Witnesses.

VI. Provided likewise, That nothing herein contained shall alter, or be understood to alter, in any Respect, the Form or Mode of Trials before the said Courts for the Crimes of High Treason, or of Misprision of Treason.

Not to alter Form of Trials for High Treason, &c.

'VII. And whereas by an Act, passed in the Parliament of Scotland, in the Year one thousand six 'hundred and seventy-two, intituled, Act concerning the Regulation of the Judicatories, among other Regu-'lations of the Court of Justiciary, it is provided, That four of the Judges shall always be a Quorum 'of that Court: And whereas, by another Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year one thou-'sand six hundred and eighty-one, intituled, Act appointing the Quorum of the Justice Court in Time of 'Vacance, it is statuted and ordained, That in Time of Vacance of the Session, three of the Commissioners 'of Justiciary shall be a sufficient Quorum: And whereas it has been found, from Experience, that the 'Quorum appointed by the Act of the Parliament of Scotland first above recited, is often attended with 'Inconveniences, as interfering with the Attendance of the Judges of the Court of Justiciary to their 'Duty as Judges in the Court of Session, and that the Reason for reducing the Quorum of the said Court 'of Justiciary to three, applies, with more Propriety, to the Time of the Sittings of the Court of Session, 'than to the Time of the Vacation of that Court;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any three of the Judges of the Court of Justiciary, who are also Judges of the Court of Session, shall be a sufficient Quorum of the said Court of Justiciary, as well during the Sittings of the Court of Session, as in the Time of Vacance, or Recess of that Court.

Recital of two two Acts of Parliament of Scotland.

Three Judges of the Court of Justiciary to be a Quorum, during the Sittings of the Court of Session.

VIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Powers, Authorities, and Regulations, contained in this Act, shall take Place and have Continuance from and after the first Day of July next, for the Term of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Persons sued for executing this Act, may plead the General Issue, and shall be entitled to Treble Costs.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, be sued, molested, or prosecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Clause, Matter, or Thing, herein contained, such Person and Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence, for his or their Defence; and if, upon the Trial, a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Such Monies to be issued to the Bank, and placed to the Account of the Paymaster General.

III. And be it enacted, That no Fees whatsoever shall be paid at the Exchequer or Treasury for or by reason of the Transactions aforesaid, beyond the Amount of what hath been usually paid upon Imprests and Accounts hitherto made, according to the former Custom of transacting Business between the Exchequer, Pay-office, and Bank severally.

Only customary Fees to be paid at the Exchequer or Treasury.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Money for the Service of the Army shall be issued from his Majesty's Exchequer to the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, or shall be placed, or directed to be placed, in his Hands or Possession, but the same shall be issued, and directed to be paid, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and to be placed to the Account above mentioned.

Paymaster, or his Deputy, to draw on the Bank for all Army Services.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Monies so to be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on account of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, shall not be paid out of the Bank, unless for the Army Services, and in pursuance of Drafts, or Cheque Paper, to be drawn on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and signed by the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces for the Time being, or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid; in which Drafts shall be specified the Heads of Service to which the Sums therein mentioned are to be applied; and which Drafts, so drawn, shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank to pay such Money to the Persons mentioned in such Drafts, or to the Bearer of them.

'VII. And, that the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury may have a frequent Knowledge of the Balance of Cash in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, in order to enable them to judge of the Propriety and Necessity of further Issues, and to prevent the unnecessary Accumulation of Publick Money in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Passing of this Act, in the first Memorial presented every Month, or oftener if required, to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, by the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces for the Time being,

On the Death or Removal of a Paymaster, the Balance in the Bank to vest in his Successor.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present, and of every other Paymaster of his Majesty's Forces hereafter to be appointed, the Balance of Cash for which he shall at that Time have Credit, on his Account as Paymaster General, with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed to the said Office, actually vest in such Successor, in Trust for the Service of the Army, and be forthwith transferred, carried over, and placed to the Account of such Successor Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, to be applied to the said Service, in pursuance of the like Drafts as aforesaid. And the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces for the Time being shall, and he is hereby directed and required, to form his Memorials and Requisitions to the Treasury, and to issue his Drafts as aforesaid, for all Charges and Demands, on account of the Army Services, which are due and remain unsatisfied from the tenth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, although the same have accrued in the Time of any former Paymaster General; and also within twelve Months after the Accounts, enabling the said Paymaster General to complete the herein-after mentioned Accounts, shall be received, to make up, or cause to be made up, an annual Account of the ordinary and extraordinary Services of the Army, intituled, The Account of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, to be signed and attested by every Paymaster General, who shall have paid or discharged any Part of the said Account; the first Account to commence on the Tenth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, and to end the twenty-fourth Day of December following; and every succeeding Account to begin on the twenty-fifth Day of December, and to end on the twenty-fourth Day of December following, in the last and every succeeding Year, and to transmit the same, together with proper Vouchers, to the Auditor or Auditors of the Imprest, who shall, and they are hereby directed and required, within Six Months after the Receipt thereof, to examine, or cause to be examined, the said Annual Accounts, and, if found satisfactory, to present, or cause to be presented, the same to the proper Officer or Officers, for Declaration; and when the same is declared, a Quietus or Acquittance, in the usual Form, shall be made out to the said Paymaster or Paymasters General, his or their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators.

Paymaster to keep an Account with the Bank, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces for the Time being shall keep the Account with the Bank of all Monies issued to or directed to be paid to him for the Service of the Army: And the said Paymaster General, observing the Rules and Regulations hereby prescribed, shall not be answerable for any Money which he shall not actually receive; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be answerable for all the Monies which shall be actually received by them for the Service of the Army.

Any Person who shall forge the Name of the Paymaster, &c. to obtain Money from the Bank, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, knowingly and wilfully forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, the Name or Hand of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces for the Time being, or of his Deputy, to any Draft, Cheque Paper, Instrument, or Writing whatsoever, for or in order to the receiving or obtaining any of the Money in the Hands or Custody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces; or shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, and knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Draft, Cheque Paper, Instrument, or Writing, in Form of a Draft made by such Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, or his Deputy; or shall utter or publish any such, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with an Intention to defraud any Person whatsoever; every such Person and Persons so offending (being thereof lawfully convicted) shall be, and is and are hereby declared and adjudged to be, guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death, as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Books of Account in the Paymaster's Office shall be held to belong to the same.

XI. And be it enacted, That all Books of Accounts whatsoever kept in the Office of Paymaster General, shall be held to belong to the said Office, and shall not be at the Disposal of the Paymaster General, to take and dispose of the same as his private and proper Books of Account: Provided that nothing herein shall extend to prevent any Person or Persons who hath or have exercised the Office of Paymaster General, or his or their Executors or Administrators, by himself or themselves, or by any Person or Persons authorised by him or them, from taking Copies or Extracts thereof, until an Acquittance in the Exchequer shall be made out for every several Paymaster, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators.

From Dec. 25, 1783, no Fees to be taken in the Paymaster's Office for Business done therein;

'XII. And whereas it appears, from the Reports of the Commissioners for examining, taking, and stating, the Public Accounts of the Kingdom, that the Salaries, Fees, and Gratuities, received by several of the Officers, Clerks, and Servants, employed in the Office of Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, have, of late Years, amounted to Sums beyond a reasonable and adequate Compensation for their respective Services;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December next, no Fee, Perquisite, Emolument, or Reward whatsoever (other than and except the Salaries and Allowances herein-after mentioned) shall be taken in the said Office for any Business, Matter, or Thing, to be done therein; and in lieu thereof, the Officers, Clerks, and Servants, in the said Office, shall receive annual Salaries, payable quarterly, without Deduction, together with such further Augmentations (the said Augmentations to be made no oftener than once in the Year) as the Increase of Business in the said Office from Time to Time shall require; the said Salaries and Augmentations to be regulated by the Paymaster General, by and with the Concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and his Majesty's Approbation had thereon, and not otherwise; and a List of the said Officers, Clerks, and Servants, together with an Account of the Salaries paid, and Augmentations made to them from Time to Time, shall be entered in a Book, intituled, The Salary Book, and deposited in the Office of the said Paymaster General,

General, and Copies thereof lodged in the Treasury and Bank of England; and if any Person belonging to, or who shall hereafter belong to, the said Office, shall take or accept any Fee, Perquisite, Emolument, or Reward, (other than and except the Salaries and Allowances above-mentioned) he shall be dismissed from his Office or Employment, and be rendered incapable of serving his Majesty in any Employment whatever for the Space of three Years.

on Penalty of Dismission, and being incapacitated for three Years.

XIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fees paid at the Office of the Paymaster General, since the tenth Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, and which shall be paid at the said Office on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, shall be deposited in the Hands of the Cashier of the said Office, or others authorised by the said Paymaster General, in order to form a Fund, from which a reasonable Augmentation to the Salaries and Appointments of the several Officers, Clerks, and Servants, shall be made, for their Services during the aforesaid Period; the said Augmentation to be regulated by the said Paymaster General, by and with the Concurrence of the Commissioners of the Treasury, and his Majesty's Approbation obtained thereon, and not otherwise; and the Remainder shall be paid to the Treasurer or Vice Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, to be applied to the Fund for an Augmentation to the Half-pay of Officers, and others provided for by this Act.

Fees paid, and to be paid from Oct. 10. 1782, to Dec. 25, 1783, how to be disposed of.

'XIV. And whereas the Agents of the several Regiments, Troops, and Companies, of his Majesty's 'Army, have been accustomed to stop two Days Pay out of the Arrears or Clearings due to every Com- 'missioned Officer, avowedly for the Purpose of discharging Fees of Office; and whereas such Stoppage 'not seeming to be warranted either from under the King's Sign Manual, or from any other Authority 'whatsoever;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, no such Stoppage as aforesaid shall be made; and if any Agent shall, after the said twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, presume to stop the said two Days Pay as heretofore, or any Part thereof, such Agent so offending shall be dismissed from his Agency, and be rendered incapable of serving his Majesty in that Capacity for the Space of three Years.

From Dec. 25, 1783, Agents not to make any Stoppages for discharging Fees of Office.

'XV. And whereas a considerable annual Sum of Money is or may be saved from the Allowance for 'Clothing of certain Invalid and Independent Companies, a large Part of which Saving is or may be ren- 'dered permanent;' be it hereby enacted, That all Sums saved from the said Allowance, or brought in Account in consequence of any Savings to be made in the Administration of Chelsea Hospital, shall be paid to the Treasurer or Vice Treasurer of the said Hospital, towards a Fund for an Augmentation to the Half-pay of Officers who have been or shall be maimed or grievously wounded in his Majesty's Land Service, or as an Augmentation to the Pensions of Widows, or as Pensions to the Children of such Officers as have been killed in the said Land Service, as his Majesty shall direct and appoint; provided that no Addition to Half-pay, in consequence of Maims or Wounds, or Pensions to Widows whose Husbands have or shall have been killed in his Majesty's Service, shall exceed twenty-five Pounds a Year; nor shall the Allowance to a single Child of an Officer killed exceed twenty Pounds a Year, nor be continued longer (if a Male) than to twenty-five Years of Age, or until he be provided for in his Majesty's Service; or, if more Children are left, the Share of each Child shall not exceed twelve Pounds a Year, to be continued to the Males as aforesaid, and no otherwise.

Savings in the Clothing of Invalid Companies, &c. how to be applied.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to deprive the Paymaster General of the usual Allowances for himself, or for Contingencies, nor to prevent him from administering or applying the said Contingencies according to the usual Course of Office.

Not to deprive the Paymaster of the usual Allowances for himself and for Contingencies.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away, diminish, or alter, the Power of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces to appoint, remove, or change, at his Pleasure, all or any of the Officers and Clerks employed in his said Office; or, with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three of them, signified in Writing, to increase the Number of such Clerks, in case the Circumstances of the Business of the said Office should render such an Increase necessary; which said additional Officers and Clerks shall, upon their respective Appointments, become intitled to the like Salaries as are herein-before directed to be paid to the Officers and Clerks in a similar Rank and Station in the said Office, and shall be subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, and Penalties, to which the Officers and Clerks now existing in the said Office are made by this Act.

Not to take away the Power of the Paymaster of removing Officers employed in his Office, &c.

'XVIII. And whereas it appears, by the Report made by the Commissioners appointed to examine, 'take, and state, the Publick Accounts of the Kingdom, that making the Payment of the Army more 'simple, expeditious, and intelligible, would be of great Publick Utility: And whereas it is proper that 'Regulations should be made for that Purpose;' be it enacted, That, from the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, all Estimates, Debentures, Clearing Warrants, and all Warrants and Accounts, of whatsoever Nature they may be, belonging to the Army, whether for the Space of one or more Years (any Part or Parts of a Year, as the Service may require, excepted), shall be made out from the twenty-fifth Day of December, in every Year; any other Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

All Estimates, Debentures, &c. to be made out annually from Dec. 25.

'XIX. And whereas the dividing the Establishments under their several Heads of Service, would greatly 'facilitate the aforesaid Purposes;' be it enacted, That the Secretary at War shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form, or cause to be formed, Estimates for the several annual Services of which the Establishments of the Army consist; that is to say, An Estimate of the Charge of the Pensions to be paid to the Widows of Commissioned Officers; an Estimate of the Charge of the Clothing of the Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men of his Majesty's Regular Forces; an Estimate of the Charge of Agency, charged in Secretary at War to form Estimates of the several annual Services under distinct Heads.

in the clearing of the several Regiments and Corps, and of the Allowances made to the Agent of the Subsistence of Non-effective Men, called Warrant Men; an Estimate of the Charge of the In and Out Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, and of the Expences of the said Hospital; an Estimate of the actual Pay of the Commissioned Officers, and Non-commissioned Officers, and Private Men, of his Majesty's Forces, on the several Establishments; an Estimate of the Charge of the Allowances made to Captains, Paymasters, Surgeons, and for the Use of Riding-masters, Rough Riders, and Expences incident to the same; an Estimate of the Charge of the Allowance to the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Land Forces, the Secretary at War, the Commissary General of the Musters, the Judge Advocate, their Deputies, Clerks, and the contingent Expences of their respective Offices, Exchequer Fees, and all other Services now paid out of the Deduction of Twelve-pence in the Pound, and one Day's Pay, and not otherwise provided for by this Act: And the said Secretary at War shall, and he is hereby directed and required to transmit Copies of the said Estimates, so soon as the same have been agreed to by the House of Commons, to the Office of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Land Forces.

Copies whereof to be transmitted to the Paymaster.

XX. And be it enacted, That, from the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Land Forces shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form his Memorials and Requisitions to the Treasury, and to issue his Drafts upon the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon the twenty-fourth Day of June, and twenty-fourth Day of December, in every Year, in equal Payments, to such Person or Persons as have a regular Assignment from the several Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels Commandant, Majors and Captains Commandant, and Captains, for the Monies appropriated for the Clothing of the Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men of his Majesty's regular Forces.

Paymaster to form his Memorials to the Treasury, &c. for Monies appropriated for Clothing, on June 24, and Dec. 24, annually.

XXI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the making any Alteration in the Privileges, Profits, or Emoluments, which the said Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels Commandant, Majors and Captains Commandant, and Captains, now derive, either from the Clothing, or the non-effective Men, called Warrant Men, or Hautbois, of their respective Regiments, Troops, and Companies; but the said Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels Commandant, Majors and Captains Commandant, and Captains, shall continue to enjoy and receive the same Privileges, Profits, and Emoluments, as they would otherwise enjoy and receive from the nett Off-reckonings, and from the non-effective Men, called Warrant Men, or Hautbois, of their respective Regiments and Corps, had this Act not been made.

Not to alter the Privileges, Profits, &c. of Colonels, Lieut. Col. &c. relative to Clothing or non-effective Men.

'XXII. And, for the better Prevention of the issuing from the Exchequer any more Monies than shall 'be necessary for the Purposes recited in this Act;' be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Secretary at War shall, and he is hereby directed and required, from Time to Time, to transmit to the Office of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Land Forces, an Account of the effective Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men of his Majesty's Regular Forces, and embodied Militia, serving in Great Britain, distinguishing each Corps severally; and the said Paymaster General shall, and he is hereby directed and required, to form his Memorials and Requisitions, and to issue his Drafts, as aforesaid, for the Subsistence of the said effective Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men, according to the said Accounts, and for no other Service under the said Title or Description.

Secretary at War to transmit to the Paymaster's Office an Account of the effective Officers and Privates, Regulars and embodied Militia, in Great Britain.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Assignments, Debentures, Clearing Warrants, or other Warrants or Accounts of the Army, for Periods prior to the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; but all such Assignments, Debentures, Clearing Warrants, or other Warrants or Accounts, shall be prepared and made up in the same Manner as they would have been, had this Act not been made.

Not to extend to Assignments, Debentures, &c. prior to Dec. 25, 1783.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces from issuing, to the Agents of the respective Regiments, Troops, and Companies, in monthly Payments, the Allowances given to the Agents, in lieu of the Subsistence of the non-effective Men, called Warrant Men, formerly paid to them.

Paymaster may issue certain Allowances to Agents monthly.

XXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Allowances heretofore made to the Colonel or Commandant, known by the Name of Allowances to the Colonel of the Subsistence of non-effective Men, called Warrant Men and Hautbois, shall be added to the Pay of the said Colonels and Commandants; and the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces shall, and he is hereby directed and required to issue the same, in monthly Payments, at the Time the Subsistence of the Army is issued.

Allowances to Colonels of Subsistence of non-effective Men, to be added to their Pay.

'XXVI. And whereas the Method of setting apart the Subsistence of the non-effective Men, as a Fund 'for the recruiting and other contingent Services, tends to Obscurity and Confusion in Accounts;' be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Secretary at War shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form, or cause to be formed, from Time to Time, an Estimate of the Monies which may be necessary for recruiting each Regiment, Troop, or Company, of his Majesty's Forces, and to transmit the said Estimate to the Office of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Land Forces; who shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form his Memorials and Requisitions, and to issue his Drafts, as aforesaid, for the same, at the Times, and in the Proportions, which the said Secretary at War shall direct; and to charge the same to the Account of each Regiment, Troop, and Company, for whose Use the said Monies have been issued.

Secretary at War to form an Estimate of Monies necessary for recruiting each Regiment, &c. and to transmit it to the Paymaster's Office.

'XXVII. And whereas it is necessary that Accounts of the recruiting Service should be regularly trans- 'mitted;' be it enacted, That every Officer employed in the recruiting any Regiment, Troop, or Company, of his Majesty's Forces, shall, and he is hereby directed and required, every two Months, to make up and to transmit, examined and certified by his commanding Officer, if resident in Great Britain (who in this Case shall, and he is hereby directed and required to certify the same), to the Adjutant General of his Majesty's Forces, an Abstract of the Numbers recruited during the two preceding Months, and also to transmit a Copy of the said Abstract, together with a regular and exact Account of the Expences which have attended the said Service during the two preceding Months, to the Agent of the Corps for which such Officer is recruiting respectively; and on Failure herein, the Officer, through whose Neglect such such Abstract and Account, or a Copy thereof, shall not have been transmitted to the Adjutant General, or to the Agent of the Corps respectively, shall be liable to be tried for such Neglect by a General Court-martial, and, if convicted, shall be cashiered, or shall suffer such other Punishment as by such Court-martial shall be awarded; and the commanding Officer of the Regiment, Troop, or Company, in which such Neglect shall be committed, shall, and he is hereby directed and required to make a Report thereof to his Colonel, if in Great Britain, who shall report the same to the Commander in Chief, or to the Secretary at War, in order that the Officer so neglecting may be brought to Trial for the same.

Recruiting Officers, every two Months to transmit an Abstract of the Numbers recruited, &c. to the Adjutant General, and to the Agent.

'XXVIII. And whereas his Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct a Part of the Poundage deducted from his Forces to be returned;' be it enacted, That, from the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, the Secretary at War shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form, or cause to be formed, on the twenty-fourth Day of June, and twenty-fourth Day of December, in every Year, an Account for the preceding six Months, of the Monies necessary to be issued for defraying the Expence of repaying such Parts of the Poundage deducted from the Pay of the Forces as are now returned to the effective Men of his Majesty's Foot Forces, or which his Majesty shall, by Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, hereafter direct to be repaid; and to transmit the same to the Office of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Land Forces, who shall, and is hereby directed and required, within fourteen Days from the Receipt thereof, to form his Memorials and Requisitions, and to issue his Drafts, as aforesaid, for the same, upon the said twenty-fourth Day of June, and twenty-fourth Day of December, and to charge them to the Account of each Corps, as aforesaid.

Directions to the Secretary at War relative to repaying Poundage deducted.

'XXIX. And whereas it is expedient to keep the Services which are now provided for out of the 'Subsistence issued for the non-effective Men, or the Contingencies, more distinct;' be it enacted, That the Secretary at War shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form, or cause to be formed, from Time to Time, an Estimate of the Monies necessary to be issued on account of the extra Price of Bread, when his Majesty's Troops are in Barracks; also an Estimate, from Time to Time, of the Monies necessary to be issued for defraying the Expences of Marches; also, on or before the first Day of November in every Year, an Estimate of the Monies necessary to be issued for his Majesty's Horse and Dragoon Forces, usually called Grass Money; and also, on the twenty-fourth Day of June, and twenty-fourth Day of December, in every Year, an Estimate of the Monies necessary to be issued for the Expences of Deserters, Subsistence of discharged Men, Fees of Offices, Hospital Expences, Carriage and Expences of new Arms, Travelling Expences of Officers and Horses before they join the Regiment; together with all lesser Contingencies, now usually paid, or which his Majesty shall, by any future Regulations, under his Royal Sign Manual, direct to be allowed to and for the Use of each Regiment, Troop, and Company, of his Forces; and to transmit the same to the Office of Paymaster General of his Majesty's Land Forces, who shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form his Memorials and Requisitions, and to issue his Drafts as aforesaid, for the several Monies contained in the said Estimates, at such Times, and in such Proportions, as the Secretary at War shall direct, or are otherwise provided for by this Act, and to charge the same to the Account of each Corps, as aforesaid.

Secretary at War to form the several Estimates herein mentioned; and to transmit them to the Pay-office.

'XXX. From Sept. 29, 1783, no Dealer in foreign Spirituous Liquors, within the Limits of the Excise Office (not being a licensed Retailer), shall make Entry of any Warehouse, &c. for keeping foreign Spirits, unless he be assessed for a Tenement of 12l. per Ann. &c. nor in any other Part of the Kingdom, unless he pay to Church and Poor.

Directions relative to taking out Permits, and removing foreign Spirits.

'III. And, the better to prevent foreign Spirituous Liquors, that have been illegally imported into this 'Kingdom, from being removed from the Sea Coasts into the Stocks of entered Dealers in those Commo-'dities, and of others,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, no Seller of or Dealer in foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, shall be allowed to take out more than one Permit in one and the same Day to any one Person whatsoever (except as herein-after is excepted), which Permit shall be granted for the Removal of no more than one Cask, or other Package, containing any foreign Spirituous Liquors of one Kind or Species; and if any more than one Cask, or other Package, of foreign Spirituous Liquors of one Kind or Species at one Time, directed to one and the same Person (or Persons, where there are two or more in joint Trade or Partnership, except as herein-after is excepted), shall be found removed or carried, or removing or carrying, from one Place in this Kingdom to any other Place, whether with or without Permit, the same, together with the Vessels and Boats, and the Horses and other Cattle, and the Carriages employed in removing or carrying the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Dealer in foreign Spirituous Liquors from taking out two or more Permits, and, by virtue thereof, sending two or more Casks, or other Packages, containing foreign Spirituous Liquors of the same Kind and Species, to the same Person, in the same Day, so as each and every such Cask or Package respectively shall be sent under different Permits, and by different Conveyances.

Foreign Spirits in Casks of less than 60 Gallons, found removing at any Time contrary to this Act, shall be forfeited, with the Cattle and Carriages.

'VIII. And whereas, for the better securing the Duties chargeable upon excisable Commodities, the 'Dealers therein are, by several Statutes now in force, required to take out Permits from the proper 'Officers of Excise, certifying that those Duties have been paid, which Permits are to accompany such 'Commodities when removing from one Part of this Kingdom to any other Part thereof: And whereas 'great Frauds have been committed by forging Permits in Imitation of those granted by such Officers, and 'the Penalties already provided to prevent such Forgeries are not sufficient to suppress so great an Evil; 'for the more effectual preventing such Practices, so manifestly tending to the Ruin of the fair Trader, and 'to the Diminution of so material a Branch of the Revenue of this Kingdom,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland shall, on or before the said twenty-ninth Day of September, provide, or cause to be provided, Moulds or Frames for the making of Paper to be used for Permits, which Paper shall have the Words Excise Office visible in the Substance of such Paper; and shall also provide, or cause to be provided, one or more Plate or Plates, engraved with certain Marks, Stamps, and Devices, in Manner as to them shall seem meet (which Marks, Stamps, and Devices, on the said Plates, or any of them, may from Time to Time be varied or altered in such Manner, and as often as the said Commissioners for the Time being respectively shall think necessary), for the printing, stamping, and marking the said Paper; and all Permits from thenceforth to be given or granted, by the respective Officers for the several Duties of Excise and Inland Duties, for the Removal of any exciseable Commodity, shall be printed, stamped, and marked by the said Plate or Plates on Paper so made, with the Words Excise Office visible in the Substance thereof; which said Paper shall be made, and the said Plate or Plates shall be engraven, by such Person and Persons respectively as are now, or hereafter shall be, appointed by the said Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them, from Time to Time, under their respective Hands and Seals, for those Purposes; and as well the said Paper so made, as also the said Plate or Plates so engraved as aforesaid, shall be kept by such Officer or Officers as shall from Time to Time be appointed by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, for keeping the same: And the Officer or Officers to be appointed for printing Permits, shall not print, stamp, or mark any Paper whereon any Permit or Permits shall be given or granted for the Removal of any exciseable Commodity, but on the Paper so provided as aforesaid, and having the Words Excise Office visible in the Substance of such Paper.

No Permits to be granted on any other Paper.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, if any Person or Persons whatsoever (not being authorised by the respective Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland so to do) shall make, or cause or procure to be made, or shall knowingly aid or assist in the making, or without being authorised or appointed as aforesaid, shall knowingly have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, without lawful Excuse, (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused), any Frame, Mould, or Instrument, for the making of Paper with the Words Excise Office visible in the Substance of such Paper; or shall make, or cause or procure to be made, or knowingly aid or assist in the making, any Paper, in the Substance of which the Words Excise Office shall be visible; or if any Person (except as before excepted) shall, by any Art, Mystery, or Contrivance, cause or procure the said Words Excise Office to appear visible in the Substance of any Paper whatever; or if any Person or Persons whatever (not being appointed as aforesaid) shall engrave, cast, cut, or make, or shall cause or procure to be engraven, cast, cut, or made, any Plate or Plates, or other Thing, with any Mark, Stamp, or Device thereon, in Imitation of, or to resemble any Mark, Stamp, or Device, made and used by the Direction of the said Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them respectively, in Manner as aforesaid, for the Purpose of printing, stamping, and marking of the Paper to be used for a Permit or Permits, to accompany any exciseable Commodity or Commodities removing or removed from one Part of this Kingdom to any other Part thereof, in pursuance of the Directions of the several Statutes requiring such Permit; every Person so offending, in any of the Cases aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall, for such Offence, be deemed and adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death, as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

All Persons who shall make any Mould, &c. for making such Paper as aforesaid, or assist in making such Paper, &c.

unless appointed by the Commissioners of Excise, shall suffer Death as Felons.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall counterfeit or forge, or cause to be counterfeited or forged, any Permit for the Removal of any exciseable Commodity from one Part of this Kingdom to any other Part thereof, for the Removal of which a Permit or Certificate is by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force required; or if any Person or Persons shall knowingly or willingly give any false or untrue Permit, or shall knowingly or willingly accept or receive any false or untrue Permit with any such exciseable Commodity to be removed or removed as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons shall fraudulently alter or erase any Permit, after the same shall have been given or granted by the proper Officer of Excise; or if any Person or Persons shall knowingly or willingly publish or make use of any such Permit so counterfeited, forged, false, untrue, altered, or erased; every Person so offending shall (in lieu of any former Penalty), for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds; which Forfeiture shall and may be prosecuted in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

Persons counterfeiting Permits, or giving or receiving any false Permit, or altering any granted by the proper Officer, shall forfeit 500*l*.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, if any Officer of Excise or other Inland Duties, shall deliver out, or suffer to be delivered out, any Paper having the Words Excise Office visible in the Substance thereof, either before or after the Stamp or Mark, so to be provided as aforesaid, shall be printed thereon, or before the same shall be filled up, agreeable to the Request Note brought from any Trader, for the Purpose of having a Permit for the Removal of some exciseable Commodity; or if any such Officer shall knowingly give or grant any false or untrue Permit, or shall make any false or untrue Entry in the Counterpart or Counterparts of any Permit or Permits, by him given or granted for the Removal of any exciseable Commodity from the Stock of any Dealer therein; or shall knowingly and willingly receive or take any exciseable Commodity whatsoever into the Stock of any such Dealer, brought in with any false, forged, or untrue Permit, or shall knowingly permit or suffer the same to be done, directly or indirectly, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the several Statutes in such Case made and provided, every such Officer so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported, in like Manner as other Felons are directed to be transported, by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, for any Time not exceeding seven years.

'XIII. And whereas, notwithstanding the many Laws already made to prevent the private Distillation of 'Low Wines and of Spirits, evil-minded Persons do privately make Spirits; now, for the better detecting such 'Persons,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, in case any Officer or Officers of Excise shall know, or have Cause to suspect, that any private or concealed Still, Back, or other Vessel, Spirits, Low Wines, Wash, or other Materials, preparing for Distillation, are set up or kept in any House or Place; then, and in such Case, if such House or Place shall be within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City, or Liberty, where such House or Place shall be, or before the Commissioners of Excise, or any two or more of them; or, in case the same shall be in any other Part of Great Britain, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, or Place, where such Officer or Officers shall suspect the same to be so set up and kept, setting forth the Ground of such his or their Suspicion; it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Excise, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, before whom such Affidavit or Affidavits shall be made, if he or they shall judge it reasonable, by Special Warrant under his or their respective Hands and Seals, to authorise and impower such Officer or Officers, by Day or by Night (but if in the Night Time, then in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace, who are hereby required to be aiding and assisting therein), to break open the Doors or any Part of such House or Place, where he or they shall so know or suspect such private or concealed Still, Back, or other Vessel, Spirits, Low Wines, Wash, or Materials for Distillation, are so set up and kept, and to enter into such House or Place, and to seize all and every such Stills, Backs, or other Vessels, and all such Spirits, Low Wines, Wash, and other Materials preparing for Distillation, which he or they shall find and discover, and either to detain and keep the same in the House or Place where found, or to remove the same to the Office of Excise next to the Place where the same shall be so discovered and found; and in case the same shall not, within ten Days next after such Seizure, be claimed by the true and lawful Owner thereof, then the said Stills, Backs, and other Vessels, Spirits, Low Wines, Wash, and other Materials for Distillation, shall be absolutely forfeited, and the Proprietor of any such private or concealed Still, Back, or other Vessel, or the Person in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit and lose, for every Place in which every such private Still, Back, or other Vessel, shall be so found, and also for every such Still, Back, and Vessel, found therein, the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And if any Person or Persons shall obstruct, oppose, molest, or hinder, any Officer or Officers of Excise, or others acting in their Assistance, in the due seizing any such private or concealed Stills, Backs, or other Vessels, Spirits, Low Wines, Wash, or other Materials for Distillation, or in detaining or keeping the same in the Place where found, or in removing the same, or any of them, after Seizure, to the next Office of Excise as aforesaid; then, and in every such Case, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

CAP. LXXIX.

An Act for the further encouraging the Growth of Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, in his Majesty's Islands and Plantations in America.

Preamble. Recital of 10 Geo. I. cap. 10.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the First (intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa Paste, imported; and for granting certain Inland Duties in lieu thereof; and for prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready-made, and Cocoa Paste; and for better ascertaining the Duties payable upon Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts, imported; and for granting Relief to Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath), it was amongst other Things enacted and declared, That, in lieu of certain Duties, then payable by former Acts, an Inland Duty should be charged and imposed upon all Coffee to be sold in Great Britain, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, after the Rate of two Shillings per Pound Avoirdupois; and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties, which then remained payable to his Majesty for the same, upon the Importation thereof: And whereas by an Act, made in the Fifth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second (intituled, An Act for encouraging the Growth of Coffee in his Majesty's Plantations in America), after reciting there was great Reason to believe, that the Soil and Climate of the Island of Jamaica, and other British Plantations in America, were proper for the Growth of Coffee; and that great Quantities of that Commodity might be produced in the said Plantations, and from thence imported into this Kingdom, if Encouragement should be given for that Purpose, to the great Advantage of this Kingdom, and of the said Plantations; therefore, for the encouraging the Growth of Coffee in the said Plantations, and the Importation of the same into this Kingdom, it was enacted, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five, all Coffee of the Growth or Product of any of the British Plantations in America should, in lieu of the said Inland Duties of two Shillings per Pound, pay an Inland Duty of one Shilling and six Pence, and no more, per Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; and that the Persons nominated and appointed, by virtue of the said therein and herein first mentioned Act, to manage and collect the said Inland Duty arising thereby, should, and were thereby impowered to take and receive the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence per Pound Weight, and no more, for all Coffee of the Growth and Product of the British Plantations: And whereas the lowering the Duty on Coffee, the Growth and Product of the British Islands and Plantations in America, would still more encourage the Growth of Coffee in the said Islands and Plantations, if the Duty on Coffee, the Growth and Produce of those Islands and Plantations, should be further lessened:' Now, therefore, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, all Coffee, of the Growth and Produce of any of the British Islands or Plantations in America, shall, in lieu of the said Inland Duty of one Shilling and six Pence per Pound Weight, pay an Inland Duty of six Pence per Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; and the Persons nominated and appointed, by virtue of the said herein first mentioned Act, to manage and collect the said Inland Duty to arise thereby, shall, and are hereby impowered to take and receive the Sum of six Pence per Pound Weight, and no more, for all Coffee, of the Growth and Produce of the said British Islands or Plantations above mentioned; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

5 Geo. II. cap. 24.

The said Duty to be applicable to the Uses mentioned in the Act 10 Geo. I.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Powers, Rules, Regulations, Authorities, Directions, Methods, Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things, which, in and by the said Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King George the Second, are provided, settled, or established, for managing, raising, levying, collecting, regulating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining, the Duties thereby granted, shall be exercised, applied, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, ascertaining, and paying, the said Duty upon Coffee, hereby imposed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Regulations, Authorities, Directions, Methods, Clauses, Penalties, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

All the Powers, Regulations, &c. for raising and recovering the Duties granted by Act 5 Geo. II. shall be applicable to this Act.

IV. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That all Coffee, so to be brought from the said Islands or Plantations, shall be imported in such Packages, and in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, as in and by an Act, made in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for the better securing, and further Improvement, of the Revenues of Customs, Excise, Inland and Salt Duties; and for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of the Isle of Man; and for allowing the Importation of several Goods, the Produce and Manufacture of the said Island, under certain Restrictions and Regulations), are provided and required.

Coffee imported from the said Islands, &c. to be in such Packages, and under such Regulations, as mentioned in Act 5 Geo. III. cap. 43.

'V. And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties payable upon Chocolate made in Great Britain, and for granting certain

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for repealing an Act, made in the twenty-second Year of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for charging a "Stamp-duty upon Inland Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Notes, payable otherwise than upon "Demand;" and for granting new Stamp duties on Bills of Exchange, Promissory and other Notes; and also Stamp-duties on Receipts); it was enacted, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, there should be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Rates and Duties following; (that is to say,) For every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Foreign or Inland Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, should be ingrossed, written or printed, where the Sum expressed therein, or made payable thereby, should not amount to the Sum of fifty Pounds, there should be charged a Stamp-duty of Six-pence; and for every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Foreign or Inland Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, should be ingrossed, written, or printed, where the Sum expressed therein, or made payable thereby, should amount to the Sum of fifty Pounds, or upwards, there should be charged a Stamp-duty of one Shilling: And it was enacted, That, from and after the first Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, there should be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, the several Rates and Duties following; (that is to say,) For every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Receipt or other Discharge given upon the Payment of Money, amounting to two Pounds, and not amounting to the Sum of twenty Pounds, should be ingrossed, written, or printed, there should be charged a Stamp-duty of Two-pence; and for every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Receipt or other Discharge given upon the Payment of Money, amounting to the Sum of twenty Pounds, and upwards, should be ingrossed, written, or printed, there should be charged a Stamp-duty of Four-pence: And it was further enacted by the said Act, That all Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Distributions of Penalties, and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things prescribed and appointed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, relating to the Stamp-duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, should be of full Force and Effect with relation to the Duties thereby imposed, and should be applied and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said new Duties thereby imposed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been thereby enacted, with relation to the said new Duties thereby imposed:

'And whereas by ſeveral of the Laws now in Force, relating to the Stamp-duties on Vellum, Parchment, 'and Paper, it was enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhould ingroſs or write, or cauſe to be in-'groſſed or written, upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, any of the Matters or Things for which the 'ſaid Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, is thereby charged to pay any Duty, before ſuch Time as the ſaid 'Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, ſhall be marked or ſtamped as aforeſaid, or upon which there ſhall not 'be ſome Mark or Stamp reſembling the ſame; or ſhould ingroſs or write, or cauſe to be ingroſſed or 'written, any Matter or Thing upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, that ſhould be marked or 'ſtamped for any lower Duty than the Duty by ſuch Acts payable for what ſhould be ſo ingroſſed 'or written, ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhould, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds; 'and by other of the ſaid Laws the Penalty and Forfeiture impoſed on ſuch Offence is ten Pounds: And 'whereas Doubts have ariſen, whether the ſaid recited Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament extends any 'or either, and which of the Penalties preſcribed by the ſaid former Acts of Parliament, to Bills of Ex-'change, Promiſſory and other Notes, and Receipts or other Diſcharges given for the Payment of Money, 'on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not properly ſtamped:' For Remedy whereof, and to obviate ſuch Doubts, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall write or ſign, or cauſe to be written or ſigned, any Bill of Exchange, Promiſſory or other Note, or any Receipt or other Diſcharge given for the Payment of Money, liable to any Stamp-duty charged by the ſaid recited Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, upon any Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, without the ſame being firſt duly ſtamped as in and by the ſaid Act is directed, or upon which there ſhall not be ſome Stamp or Mark reſembling the ſame, he, ſhe, or they ſhall, for every ſuch Bill of Exchange, Promiſſory or other Note, or any ſuch Receipt or other Diſcharge, ſo written or ſigned, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and applied as in and by the ſaid recited Act is directed, or in Manner herein-after mentioned.

No Perſon, after March 25, 1784, to write or ſign any Bill of Exchange, Promiſſory Note, or Receipt, liable to any Stamp-duty by the Act of laſt Seſſion, except on ſtamped Paper, &c. on Penalty of 5*l*.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be liable to any Proſecution for having written or ſigned, or cauſed to be written or ſigned, previous to the Commencement of this Act, any Bill of Exchange, Promiſſory or other Note, or any Receipt or other Diſcharge for the Payment of Money, upon any Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not duly ſtamped according to the Directions contained in the ſaid recited Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament.

All Perſons indemnified for having ſigned ſuch Receipts, &c. on unſtamped Paper, before the Commencement of this Act.

'III. And whereas Drafts or Orders for the Payment of Money on Demand upon any Banker, or 'Perſon or Perſons acting as a Banker, reſiding or tranſacting the Buſineſs of a Banker within ten Miles 'of the Place of Abode of the Perſon or Perſons drawing ſuch Draft or Order, are exempted by the ſaid 'herein-before recited Act from the Payment of the Stamp-duty thereby impoſed: And whereas it might 'tend to prevent Evaſions, if ſuch Exemption was confined to Drafts or Orders made payable to the 'Bearer;' be it therefore further enacted, That all Drafts or Orders, for the Payment of Money on Demand, upon any Banker, Perſon or Perſons acting as Bankers, which are not drawn payable to the Bearer, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be liable to and charged with the Stamp-duties by the ſaid herein-before recited Act impoſed upon Foreign or Inland Bills of Exchange, Promiſſory Notes, or other Notes, Drafts, or Orders; the herein-before recited Exemption in the ſaid Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Drafts on Bankers, not payable to the Bearer, to be liable to the ſame Duties as Bills of Exchange, &c.

'IV. And whereas it was not the Intention of the ſaid recited Act to ſubject to any Stamp-duty any 'Note, Draft, or Order, which may be legally given for any Sum not amounting to forty Shillings;' therefore be it enacted, That no Stamp-duty ſhall be required for or on account of any Draft, Order, or Note, which may legally be given, wherein the Sum expreſſed or made payable does not amount to the Sum of forty Shillings.

Notes, &c. under 40s. not liable to any Duty.

'V. And whereas, by the ſaid herein-before recited Act, the Duty thereby granted on Receipts is 'directed to be paid by the Perſon requiring the ſame (except as therein is excepted), and a Penalty is 'by this Act impoſed on any Perſon who ſhall give a Receipt on any Parchment, Vellum, or Paper, not 'properly ſtamped as by the ſaid Act is directed: And whereas it would be a great Convenience to Traders 'and others to furniſh the Receipt properly ſtamped, if they were allowed to make a Charge thereof;' be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons required to give any Receipt, to provide the Paper ſtamped and marked as by the ſaid recited Act is directed; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may add the Value of the Stamp to the Debit of the Account of the Perſon requiring the ſame, or to the Demand, for the Diſcharge of which the ſaid Receipt was required; which ſaid Charge ſo made ſhall be allowed to be good and valid in any Court of Law or Equity.

Perſons required to give a Receipt may provide the Stamp, and charge the Value thereof.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in the herein-before recited Act contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge or impoſe any Stamp-duty upon any Receipt given or to be given for the Conſideration for the Purchaſe of any Share in any Publick Stock or Fund, or in the Stocks of the Corporations of the Bank of England, Eaſt India Company, or South Sea Company, or for the Dividends paid or payable on ſuch Shares of the ſaid Stocks.

Receipts for the Purchaſe Money in any Publick Fund, or for Dividends thereof, not liable to the Duty; nor thoſe for Drawbacks, &c.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act, or in the before-recited Act of the laſt Seſſion, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge any Receipt given or required to be given for any Money payable by Law to any Merchants for Drawbacks or Bounties upon the Exportation of any Goods or Merchandizes from this Kingdom, nor to any Certificates of over Entry of any Duties of Cuſtoms, nor to any Portage Bills allowed to Maſters of Ships or Veſſels for making a juſt and true Report of their Cargo at the Cuſtom-houſe; any Thing in this Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Bill of Exchange, Note, or Receipt, to be ſtamped after written or ſigned, unleſs upon Payment of 10l.

VIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That no Bill of Exchange, Promiſſory or other Note, Receipt or other Diſcharge given for the Payment of Money, required to be ſtamped by the ſaid recited Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be permitted to be ſtamped at any Time after the ſame ſhall have been written or ſigned, unleſs upon Payment of the Sum of ten Pounds; and the proper Officer and Officers are hereby enjoined and required, upon Payment of the Duty, and the ſaid Sum of ten Pounds, unto him or them, to give a Receipt for the ſame, and to mark or ſtamp ſuch Bill of Exchange, Promiſſory Note, Receipt or other Diſcharge given for the Payment of Money, with the Mark or Stamp required by the ſaid herein-before recited Act.

On Failure of Diſtreſs, Offender to be committed.

CAP. VII.

An Act for explaining certain Acts of the Parliament of Scotland concerning Manufactories; and for extinguishing the Claims made by the Proprietors of the two Manufactories, called The Rope and Soap Manufactories of Glasgow, to certain Exemptions from Customs and Duties, and for making Compensation in lieu thereof.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by several Acts of the Parliament of Scotland, and, among others, by an Act passed in the Year one thousand six hundred and sixty-one, in the first Parliament of King Charles the Second, intituled, Act for erecting of Manufactories, Chapter the Fortieth; by another Act, passed in the Year one thousand six hundred and sixty-nine, in the second Parliament of the said King Charles the Second, intituled, Act concerning the Excise and Customs, Chapter the Eleventh; and by another Act, passed in the Year one thousand six hundred and eighty-one, in the third Parliament of his said Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, Act for encouraging Trade and Manufactories, Chapter the Twelfth; certain Privileges and Immunities were granted, and Rules made, for encouraging and promoting Manufactures in Scotland, and particularly Materials useful for Manufactures were allowed to be imported, for the Use of such Manufactures, free of Customs and Excise, and all other publick Burdens; and, in order to prevent all Questions and Debates in relation to the said Privileges and Immunities, the Lords of his Majesty's Exchequer and Privy Council in Scotland were, by certain of the said Acts, authorised to enquire and declare what Manufactories already were, or thereafter should be, duly qualified to enjoy the Benefit of the Privileges and Immunities by the said Acts bestowed: And whereas, under the Encouragements held forth by the said Acts of Parliament, two Manufactories were erected in Glasgow, the one, in the Year one thousand six hundred and seventy-four, for making of Soap, and the other, in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, for the making of Ropes and Cordage, the Proprietors of each of which Manufactories did obtain from the Lords of the Exchequer, or Privy Council of Scotland, an Order or Act declaring their respective Works to be duly qualified in Terms of the Statutes in that Behalf, and which Manufactories, so established and approved, have been continuedly carried on since the respective Times of their Erection, and do now, by Course of regular Successions and Conveyances, belong to the following Persons; videlicet, The first-mentioned Manufactory, for making of Soap, to Sir James Maxwell Baronet, Robert Bogle, Robert Craufurd, John Maxwell, and John Craig, by way of Copartnery, known by the Appellation of The Soap Work Company of Glasgow, and transacting Business under the Firm of Robert Craufurd and Company; and the other Manufactory, for making of Ropes and Cordage, to James Corbet, James Dunlop, George Brown, Andrew Blackburn Colville, John Cross, Hugh Wyllie, Thomas Dunmore, Robert Dunmore junior, James Somerville, Robert Craufurd, George Kippen, Thomas Connell, James Gemmill, John Craufurd, James Scott, and William Semple, also by way of Copartnery, known by the Appellation of The Rope Work Company of Glasgow, and transacting Business under the Firm of James Corbet and Company: And whereas, by the sixth Article of the Treaty of Union, settled and agreed upon in the fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, between the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, Provision is made in the Terms following; videlicet, "That all Parts of the United Kingdom, for ever, from and after the "Union, shall have the same Allowances, Encouragements, and Drawbacks, and be under the same "Prohibitions, Restrictions, and Regulations of Trade, and liable to the same Customs and Duties "on Import and Export; and that the Allowances, Encouragements, and Drawbacks, Prohibitions, "Restrictions, and Regulations of Trade, and the Customs and Duties on Import and Export settled in "England when the Union commences, shall, from and after the Union, take place throughout the "whole United Kingdom, excepting and reserving the Duties upon Export and Import of such particular Commodities, from which any Persons, the Subjects of either Kingdom, are specially liberated "and exempted by their private Rights, which, after the Union, are to remain safe and entire to them "in all Respects as before the same:" And whereas, upon the Commencement of the said Union, Doubts and Disputes did arise between the Officers of her Majesty's Customs and the Proprietors of the said Soap and Rope Works, who claimed the Privilege of importing Materials for their respective Manufactories, free of Duties, as a private Right, constituted by the Acts of Parliament and Acts of Exchequer and Privy Council before mentioned, and as such, saved by the Exception in favour of private Rights contained in the aforesaid sixth Article of the said Treaty of Union; to which Claim the Officers of the Revenue objected, that the Exemption from Duties, given by the Acts of Parliament, and Exchequer and Privy Council of Scotland, was not in the Nature of a private Right, but of a publick Encouragement to Trade, and as such was determined and at an End by the Treaty of Union; in respect to which Disputes, it was agreed upon, as an interim Expedient, that the Proprietors of the aforesaid Manufactories should grant Bonds for the Duties of the Materials to be imported by them, with Condition to pay the same, in case the Parliament of Great Britain, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, should adjudge the said Materials liable to the Payment of Duties; which Agreement of taking such conditional Bonds as aforesaid was, for some Time, carried into Execution, until the Commissioners of the Customs at Edinburgh gave orders for levying the Duties upon all such Materials imported for the Use of the said Manufactories as were by Law chargeable with Duties upon being

'imported for other Purposes; whereupon the Proprietors of the said Manufactories paid the Duties 'accordingly, but under Protest, that the Right of Exemption claimed by them should not thereby be 'hurt, nor themselves precluded from reclaiming such Duties as already had been, or afterwards should 'be paid by them; and for bringing the Right of Exemption so claimed by them to Trial, the Pro- 'prietors of the said Rope Work did, some Time since, cause institute an Action in the Court of 'Exchequer at Edinburgh, at the Suit of the said James Corbet, one of the said Proprietors, and 'Assignee of the rest of those Proprietors, against Edward Burrow, Collector of the Customs at 'the Port of Port Glasgow, and John Clerk, then the Deputy of the said Edward Burrow, at the 'Member Port of Greenock, for that they had, against Right, refused to repay Duties levied by 'them on certain Materials imported for the Use of the said Rope Work; in the Course of the Pro- 'ceedings of which Action a Special Verdict was agreed upon and settled by the Parties, and returned 'by a Jury, upon which Verdict Counsel were heard by the Lord Chief Baron, and other three Barons 'of the said Court, and the Judges being equally divided in their Opinion, the Question remains hitherto 'undetermined; since the Time of which Hearing, certain Propositions have been offered by the Pro- 'prietors of both the said Works, for accommodating the Matter in Dispute: And whereas the Claim 'of Exemption made by the Proprietors of the said Manufactories would, on the one Hand, if esta- 'blished, be very prejudicial to the publick Interest, being capable to be exercised in an unlimited Extent 'with respect to the Commodities which are the Subject thereof, to the great Diminution of the Re- 'venue, and the Breach of that Equality in Trade which ought to have Place in all Parts of the United 'Kingdom: And whereas by means of the aforesaid Treaty of Union, and the Doubts and Disputes 'thereupon arising in relation to the Right of Exemption claimed as aforesaid, as well as by reason of 'the Proceedings consequent upon such Doubts and Disputes, the Proprietors of the said Rope and Soap 'Works, who, in firm Reliance of the publick Faith of the Kingdom, had laid out and employed a 'considerable Sum of Money towards carrying on the said Works, have, on the other Hand, suffered 'considerable Loss and Inconveniency, the Exemption from the Payment of Duties enjoyed by them un- 'der the Acts of the Parliament of Scotland, having, by the aforesaid Means, been abridged or interrupted, 'and much Expence incurred by Law Suits and otherwise: And whereas in a Case so circumstanced it is 'reasonable and just, that some Compensation should be made to the said Proprietors, for the private Loss 'they have suffered in consequence of the said Treaty of Union, a Transaction calculated for national 'Advantages: And whereas it is at the same Time expedient to remove all such Doubts and Disputes as 'aforesaid in future;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Exemption or Exemptions from the Payment of any Custom, Subsidy, Impost, or other Duty, upon the Importation of any Goods or Commodities whatsoever, for the Use of any Sort of Manufacture whatsoever, which was or were granted by the Acts of the Parliament of Scotland, or the Acts of the Exchequer and Privy Council of that Kingdom, herein generally or particularly before mentioned, or any of them, shall, in all Cases whatever, be deemed and taken to have been intended, not as a private Right in favour of any Person or Persons, Companies, or Bodies Politick whatever, but as a publick Encouragement to Trade, limitable by the Parliament of Scotland, and determined by the Treaty of Union concluded between these Kingdoms, and for the several Reasons and Causes herein before mentioned.

All Exemptions from the Payment of Duty, upon the Importation of Goods, granted by the Parliament of Scotland, determined by the Union.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Conditional Bonds before mentioned, which were from Time to Time heretofore granted by the Proprietors of the said Soap and Rope Works respectively, for the Duties of Materials imported by them for the Use of their respective Manufactories, shall and may be cancelled and given up, free from the Payment, to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of the Customs and Duties for which the said Bonds were granted; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorised and required to cause cancel and deliver up the said Bonds accordingly, when thereto required: And the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, are also hereby impowered and required to cause to be paid, out of any of the publick Duties and Revenues under their Management, unto the said Sir James Maxwell Baronet, Robert Bogle, Robert Craufurd, John Maxwell, and John Craig, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, by the Firm aforesaid, for the Use of the Proprietors of the said Soap Work, in consideration of their Loss and Damages by reason of the Premises, the Sum of two thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds lawful Money of Great Britain, and that by two yearly Installments, of one thousand one hundred and twenty-five Pounds each; and also by the like two yearly Installments, to cause to be paid, out of the said Revenues, unto the said James Corbet, James Dunlop, George Brown, Andrew Blackburn Colville, John Cross, Hugh Wyllie, Thomas Dunmore, Robert Dunmore junior, James Sommerville, Robert Craufurd, George Kippen, Thomas Connell, James Gemmill, John Craufurd, James Scott, and William Semple, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, under the aforesaid Firm, for the Use of the Proprietors of the aforesaid Rope Work, the like Sum of two thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds of like Money, in consideration of their Loss and Damages by reason of the Premises; the first of which Payments for each Company is to be made upon the twenty-fifth Day of December, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and the next Payment upon the twenty-fifth Day of December thereafter; and when the said several Sums of two thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, and two thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, shall be thus completely satisfied and paid, all Claims of Exemption, and other Claims whatsoever in relation thereto, set up by the Proprietors of the said Soap and Rope Works, or either of them, in Manner aforesaid, shall for ever cease and be extinguished.

The conditional Bonds before mentioned, granted by the Proprietors of the Soap and Rope Works, to be cancelled.

Sums to be paid to the Proprietors in consideration of their Loss by the Determination of the aforesaid Exemptions.

' Most Gracious Sovereign,

' WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's publick Expences, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the several additional Rates and Duties upon Candles herein after mentioned;' and do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Candles (except Wax and Spermaceti Candles), which at any Time or Times shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, or made within the same, over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, Duties of excise, or other Duties already imposed thereupon, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, the further Duties herein after mentioned; that is to say;

Preamble.

From Aug. 1, 1784, the following additional Duties to be paid to his Majesty; viz. &c.

For all Candles whatsoever (except Wax and Spermaceti Candles), which shall be so imported, one Half-penny for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said Duties for and upon all imported Candles (except Wax and Spermaceti Candles), to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, before the landing the same:

For all Candles imported (except Wax and Spermaceti), one Halfpenny per Pound;

And there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Candles (except Wax and Spermaceti Candles), which at any Time or Times shall be made within the Kingdom of Great Britain, the further Duties herein after mentioned; that is to say;

and for all Candles made in Great Britain (except as above), one Halfpenny per Pound.

For all Candles whatsoever (except Wax and Spermaceti Candles) which shall be so made in Great Britain, one Halfpenny for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the said Duties for the said Candles so to be made in Great Britain, to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

New Duties to be levied and recovered, &c. in the same Manner as the former Duties.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed for and upon all Candles imported or made as aforesaid, and all Arrearages thereof, shall and may, from Time to Time, be raised, received, levied, recovered, and secured, by such Ways and Means, and under such Management, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such other Powers, and subject to such Allowances, Drawbacks, Rules, and Directions, and in such Methods, Manner, and Form, as the like Duties granted by an Act of the eighth Year, and by another Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Queen Anne, whereby certain Duties are laid upon Candles, towards raising her said late Majesty's Supplies for the Years one thousand seven hundred and ten, and one thousand seven hundred and eleven, are by those Acts, or by any other Law or Statute thereby referred unto, or since made, to be raised, received, levied, secured, or recovered; and that the said Acts of the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of Queen Anne, and all the Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Matters, and Things therein contained, or thereby referred unto, or since enacted, for the raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, paying, or accounting for the said Duties upon Candles thereby granted, or any Arrearages of the same, are and shall be by Force of this Act continued, practised, and put in Execution, for raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, paying, and accounting for the Duties upon Candles by this Act granted, and making Allowances out of the same, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were particularly and at large recited in this present Act.

Powers of the Acts of 8 and 9 Annæ, &c. to be in Force in Execution of this Act.

All Stock in Hand on Aug. 1, 1784, to be liable to the new Duty.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Candles (except Wax and Spermaceti Candles) which any Tallow-chandler or other Sellers or Dealers in Candles in Great Britain, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Use, shall be possessed of, or interested in, upon the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, for Sale, there shall be yielded and paid to his said Majesty (over and above the Duties before this Time imposed thereupon) the like Rates as are by this Act to be paid for Candles to be made after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty four; and that all the Directions, Powers, Penalties, Forfeitures, Rules, and Clauses whatsoever, contained in the said Acts of the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of Queen Anne, relating to the Stock of Candles, which was in the Hands of any Chandlers, or other Sellers of, or Dealers in Candles, or of others in Trust for them, or for their Use, upon the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ten, or the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eleven, respectively, shall, by Force of this Act, be exercised, practised, and put in Execution, for ascertaining, securing, charging, levying, recovering, and paying the Rates by this Act imposed upon the Stock of Candles which shall be in the Hands of any such Persons as aforesaid, upon the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and for making Allowances and Drawbacks in respect thereof.

Dealers who have contracted to deliver Candles after Aug. 1, 1784, may add the new Duties to the Price thereof.

'IV. And whereas standing Contracts may have been made before the first Day of June one thousand 'seven hundred and eighty-four, by Chandlers or other Dealers in Candles, for serving publick Offices, 'Societies, or other Persons with Candles, to be delivered at a Time after the said first Day of August one 'thousand seven hundred and eighty-four,' it is hereby enacted, That the Persons serving such Candles, after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, in pursuance of such former Contracts, shall be allowed to add the Duties hereby charged upon such Candles to the Price thereof, and shall be intitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same accordingly.

Small Rush Lights, made with Kitchen Stuff for private Use, not liable to new Duties.

V. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend to charge the Duties on Candles herein before mentioned, on such small Rush Lights as shall be made by any Person or Persons, to be used in his, her, or their own Houses only, so as such small Rush Lights be only once dipped in, or once drawn through Grease or Kitchen Stuff, and not all through any Tallow melted or refined; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The new Duties on Candles imported to be subject to the additional 5 per Cents. on the Produce thereof, imposed by 29 Geo. 3. Cap. 5. and 22 Geo. 3. Cap. 60.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties by this Act imposed upon Candles imported, shall be subject and liable to the additional Duties or Imposts of five Pounds per Centum, and five Pounds per Centum, severally imposed by the Acts respectively made in the nineteenth and twenty second Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, upon the Produce and Amount thereof; and that such additional Duties or Imposts of five Pounds per Centum, and five Pounds per Centum, shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, in the same Manner, and under the same Rules and Regulations, Powers, and Authorities, Ways, Means, and Methods, as the said additional Duties or Imposts are by the said Acts of the Nineteenth and twenty-second Years of his present Majesty's Reign, directed to be collected and paid.

Excise Officers impowered, after Aug. 1, 1784, to enter the Houses, &c. of Candle-makers, and to take an Account of their Stock, by Day or by Night. 19 Geo. 2. Cap. 32.

'VII. And whereas great Frauds upon the Revenue are committed by the secret making of Candles, 'without paying the Duties for the same, which might, in a great Measure, be prevented, if the Officers 'of Excise who survey the Makers of Candles were authorised to enter the Workhouses and other Places 'of such Makers of Candles, by Night as well as by Day, and to take an Account of the Candles there 'making, without waiting for the Presence of a Constable or Peace Officer, in like Manner as Officers 'are authorised to enter the Workhouses of the Makers of Glass, by an Act made in the nineteenth Year 'of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several Rates and 'Duties upon Glass, and upon Spirituous Liquors; and for raising a certain Sum of Money by Annuities and a 'Lottery, to be charged on the said Rates and Duties; and for obviating some Doubts about making out Orders

'at

'at the Exchequer for the Monies advanced upon the Credit of the Salt Duties, granted and continued to his 'Majesty by an Act of the last Session of Parliament;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officers of Excise shall at all Times, by Day or by Night, be permitted, upon his or their Request, to enter into the House, Melting-house, Warehouse, or other Place whatsoever, belonging to, or used by, any Person or Persons, who, after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, shall be a Maker or Makers of any Candles whatsoever, and by weighing or Tale of the Candles, or otherwise, as to such Officer shall seem most proper and convenient, to take an Account of the Candles which shall have been made by such Maker or Makers of Candles from Time to Time, in like Manner as such Officers may now do in the Day-time.

Penalty on obstructing Officers.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Maker or Makers of Candles shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities given to him or them by this or any other Act, for the ascertaining or securing the said Duties upon Candles, the Person or Persons offending therein shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Recital of 11 Geo. 1. Cap. 30.

'IX. And whereas, by an Act made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues; for preventing Frauds in the Salt Duties, and for giving Relief for Salt used in the curing of Salmon and Cod-fish, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, exported from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; for enabling the Insurance Companies to plead the General Issue in Actions brought against them; and for securing the Stamp Duties upon Policies of Insurance); it was enacted, That if any Chandler, or Maker of Candles for Sale, should begin to work upon, dip, or make any Course or making of Candles, not being Mould Candles, or, in order thereto, should make any of the Preparations therein mentioned, without first making and delivering, or causing to be made and delivered, to the Officer or Officers under whose Survey such Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale should be, such Declaration in Writing of his, her, or their Intentions to make such Course or Making of Candles, as in the said Act is mentioned: And whereas the said Exception of Mould Candles has been found inconvenient, and has afforded Opportunities for the committing of Frauds on the Revenue, by the secret making of Mould Candles without paying the Duties for the same;' be it further enacted, That if, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, any Chandler or Maker of Candles shall begin to work upon, or make any Course or Making of Mould Candles, or, in order thereto, shall make any of the Preparations in the said Act mentioned, without first making and delivering, or causing to be made and delivered, to the Officer or Officers under whose Survey such Chandler or Maker of Candles shall be, a Declaration in Writing of his, her, or their Intention to make such Course or Making of Mould Candles, and of the particular Hour or Time of the Day or Night when such Course or Making is intended to be begun, and of the true Number and Size of the Moulds he, she, or they intend to fill and draw, and also of the Number of Times he, she, or they intend to fill and draw the same in each Making or Course; every such Chandler or Maker of Candles, on every Failure or Default in all or any of the Particulars before mentioned, or having in or at such Making or Course more or larger Moulds or Candles than shall be mentioned in such Declaration, or filling or drawing the said Moulds a greater Number of Times than shall be mentioned in the said Declaration, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds; and if, after such Declaration so made as aforesaid, such Making or Course of Candles shall not be begun and proceeded upon at the Hour and Time mentioned in such Declaration, or in three Hours next after such Hour and Time, then every such Declaration shall be, and is hereby declared to be, null and void.

From Aug. 1, 1784, every Candlemaker who shall begin a Course of Mould Candles, or make Preparations for the same, without delivering a written Declaration to the proper Officer of such his Intention, shall forfeit 50 l.

From Aug. 1, 1784, Commissioners of Excise, &c. not to compound with any Persons for making Candles for private Use.

'X. And whereas, by the Statutes now in Force for imposing Duties upon all Candles made in Great 'Britain, the Commissioners of Excise, or other Persons by them respectively appointed for that Purpose, 'are authorised to compound and agree with such Persons as shall make Candles, not to sell or to make any 'Profit thereof, but to be consumed in their own private Houses only, at a certain Rate or Payment for 'every Head which, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of such Composition, shall be of the 'Family of such Persons respectively, as in and by the said Statutes is particularly directed and required: 'And whereas great Frauds have been, and are now frequently practised by means of such Compositions, 'and great Quantities of Candles have been privately disposed of and sold by such Compounders, to the 'manifest Injury of the Revenue and the fair Trader;' for Remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, all the Powers and Authorities, to the Commissioners of Excise or other Persons by all or any of the said Acts given, to compound and agree with any Person or Persons for the Duties on Candles by any such Persons made, or to be made, shall cease and determine; any Thing in any of the said Statutes, or in either of them, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

All Compounders shall, on or before Aug. 10, 1784, make Entries of all such Candles as they were possessed of on Aug. 1. on Forfeiture of 50 l. and the unentered Candles; and, within six Days after, shall pay the Duties, &c.

XI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons who hath or have already made Composition or Agreement for the Duties on Candles by them respectively made, or to be made, shall, on or before the tenth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, make true and particular Entries of all such Candles as they, or any of them, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for them, or any of them, were possessed of, on the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, at the Office of Excise, within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds, and also all the Candles of which no such Entry shall be made; and within six Days after he, she, or they shall have made or ought to have made, such Entry as aforesaid, shall pay down for the said Candles the several Duties chargeable upon Candles, or, in Default thereof, shall forfeit and lose double the Value of the said Candles; and that the Houses, Out-houses, and other Places belonging to such Compounders, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, shall and are hereby made liable to the Survey of the Officers for the Duties on Candles, in the same Manner, and under the same

Rules,

Rules, and under the same Fines and Penalties for Refusal, as Persons making Candles for Sale are liable.

'XII. CAP. XIX.

An Act to revive and continue an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for encouraging the Manufacture of Leather, by lowering the Duty payable upon the Importation of Oak Bark, when the Price of such Bark shall exceed a certain Rate, for a limited Time; and for extending several Acts of Parliament relative to the Manufacture of Leather, to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Law herein after mentioned hath by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and is expired;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for encouraging the Manufacture of Leather, by lowering the Duty payable upon the Importation of Oak Bark, when the Price of such Bark shall exceed a certain Rate, for a limited Time), which was to continue in Force for five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; which Act was by another Act, made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, continued for the further Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; shall be revived, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue and be in Force for the further Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

12 Geo. 3. Cap. 50, revived, and continued for five Years.

'II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne (intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed, or dressed and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for prosecuting the War, and other her Majesty's most necessary Occasions); which said Act hath, by another Act made in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, been made perpetual to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever, but subject to Redemption by Parliament; it is by the first-mentioned Act, among other Things, recited, That in the first Year of the Reign of King James the First, of happy Memory, a good and wholesome Statute was made concerning Tanners, Shoemakers, Curriers, and other Artificers in Leather, wherein ample Provision was made for the true and well tanning, currying, and working of

'Leather, and for and concerning the buying and selling of Leather, red and unwrought, in open Fairs 'and Markets, and for such other Matters and Things, relating to Leather, as in the said Statutes are 'plainly and largely expressed, the due Execution whereof hath been and is of great Importance to the 'publick Good and Service of this Realm, and will very much contribute to the ascertaining and Col- 'lection of the Duties by this Act intended to be granted; and it is thereby enacted, That all Mayors, 'Bailiffs, and other Head Officers for the Time being, in the several Cities, Boroughs, and Market 'Towns of this Realm, and the respective Lords of Liberties, Fairs, and Markets, and the Masters and 'Wardens of the several Companies in the said Act expressed, and all Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers 'and other Artificers, and all and every other Person and Persons whatsoever, who are or ought to be 'concerned in the Execution of the said Statute, or give Obedience thereunto, shall (under such Pains, 'Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are therein severally expressed) duly execute, observe, and comply with 'the same Statute, and all the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, in relation to the tann- 'ing, dressing, making, buying, selling, trying, sealing, registering, or other Matters concerning Leather, 'other than such as have been altered by any Law or Statute since that Time made and now in Force: 'And whereas Doubts have been made whether the before-recited Clause, and so much of the said Act 'of King James the First as is therein mentioned and re-enacted, does extend to that Part of the United 'Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, and by means whereof the Duties upon Leather in that Part 'of the said United Kingdom are greately lessened and impaired, by reason of Persons who use the Art 'or Mystery of Tanning of Leather, at the same Time exercising the Craft or Mystery of Shoemakers, 'Curriers, or other Cutters of Leather, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the before-mentioned 'and in Part recited Act of King James the First: Therefore, for the putting an End to such Doubts for 'the future, and for the better and more effectually securing the Duties due and payable to his Majesty 'upon all Hides and Skins tanned and dressed in that Part of the said United Kingdom,' be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of King James the First, as is recited and re-enacted in the before-mentioned Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, does, and always did, extend to all and every Part of the said United Kingdom; and that no Person or Persons using or exercising the Mystery or Trade of Tanning of Leather, by himself, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, during the Time that he shall so use the said Mystery or Trade of a Tanner, occupy, exercise, or use the Craft or Mystery of a Shoemaker, Currier, Butcher, or of any other Artificer using or exercising the Cutting or Working of Leather, upon Pain to forfeit and lose all and every such Hide and Hides, Skin and Skins, so by them, or any of them, wrought or tanned during the Time that he shall use or exercise the Mystery, Trade, or Craft of Tanning, or the just Value thereof, and the further Sum of fifty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain; and that so much of the aforesaid Act of the first Year of the Reign of King James the First as is recited and re-enacted in the before-mentioned Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, shall be construed and taken to be, and is hereby declared to enure and extend to all and every Part of the said United Kingdom of Great Britain, in as full and ample Manner, Form, and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes (except such Part thereof as has been altered by any Law or Statute since that Time made and now in Force), as if the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of King James the First, and every Clause Matter, and Thing therein contained, was or were herein again particularly repeated and re-enacted; and that all Provosts, Baillies, and all other Chief Officers of Burghs, and Baillies of Royalties, and other Head Officers for the Time being in the several Cities, Burghs, and Market-towns in that Part of the said United Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers, and other Artificers, and all and every other Person and Persons whatsoever, who are or ought to be concerned in the Execution of the said Statute, or give Obedience thereunto, shall, under such Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures as are therein severally expressed, duly execute, observe, and comply with the said Statute, and all the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, in relation to the tanning, dressing, making, buying, selling, trying, sealing, registering, or other Matters concerning Leather (other than such as have been altered by any Law or Statute since that Time made and now in Force), as fully and effectually, and with the same Powers and Authorities, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Provosts, Baillies, and other Officers last before mentioned, and every of them, had been particularly named and described in the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of his Majesty King James the First, herein before recited.

Such Part of 1 Jac. 1. Cap. 22. as is recited in 9 Annæ, Cap. 11. declared to extend to every Part of Great Britain.

CAP. XX.

An Act for altering and amending an Act of the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for appointing Wardens and Assay Masters, for assaying wrought Plate in the Towns of Sheffield and Birmingham; so far as relates to the said Town of Sheffield.

Preamble.

Recital of 13 Geo 3. Cap. 52.

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Ma- 'jesty, intituled, An Act for appointing Wardens and Assay Masters, for assaying wrought Plate in the 'Towns of Sheffield and Birmingham; whereby the Assayer of wrought Plate, appointed or to be appointed 'in pursuance thereof, within the said Town of Sheffield, is authorised and impowered to demand and take, 'of and from every Person who should bring to the Assay Office belonging to the Company of Guardians 'incorporated by the said Act for the said Town of Sheffield, any Piece or Parcel of wrought Plate, to be 'assayed, tried, and marked, such Prices, Sums of Money, or Rewards, as the Assayer shall think fit, not 'exceeding the Sum of one Shilling for every Pound Troy, and so proportionably for every greater or less 'Quantity of Plate assayed and marked: And whereas the said Prices, Sums of Money, or Rewards, al'lowed

'lowed to be taken as aforesaid, are inadequate to the Trouble attending the assaying and marking of small 'Pieces of Plate, and insufficient to defray the necessary Expences of the Assay Office established in the said 'Town of Sheffield; and it is necessary that greater Prices, Sums of Money, or Rewards, should be allow-'ed to be taken for assaying and marking small Pieces of Plate:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Assayer of wrought Plate appointed or to be appointed by virtue of the said Act, within the said Town of Sheffield, to ask, demand, take, and receive, of and from all and every Person and Persons who shall from Time to Time bring to the Assay Office within the said Town of Sheffield, any small Pieces of wrought Plate to be assayed, tried, and marked, according to the Directions of the said recited Act, such Prices, Sums of Money, or Rewards, as the Company of Guardians of the said Assay Office shall think fit, and shall from Time to Time, at any of their Meetings, ascertain and order to be taken and received, so as such Prices, Sums of Money, or Rewards, do not exceed the Rate of six Pence for the assaying, trying, and marking, any one Dozen of such small Pieces of wrought Plate, such Dozen not exceeding in Weight six Ounces Troy; and that the Prices, Sums of Money, or Rewards, allowed to be taken by the said recited, or this present Act, shall be paid and applied in and towards the Support of the said Assay Office, and towards Payment of any Debt or Debts already or hereafter to be incurred on Account thereof, and of the Expences of obtaining and passing this present Act, in such Manner as the said Company of Guardians shall order and direct; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Prices allowed to be taken by this Act for assaying and marking wrought Plate.

'II. And whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, That if any Working Silversmith, or Dealer in 'wrought Plate, or any Worker or Dealer in any other Metal plated or covered with Silver, shall strike, or 'cause to be struck, any Letter or Letters, upon any Vessel or other Thing, made of Metal, plated or 'covered with Silver, or upon any Metal Vessel, or other Thing, made to look like Silver, such Person or 'Persons so offending shall be subject to the Penalty therein mentioned; and Doubts have arisen whether a 'Manufacturer of Goods plated with Silver can or may strike his Name upon such Goods, without incur-'ring the said Penalty; and by reason of such Doubts the Manufacturers of Goods plated with Silver have 'been deterred from striking their Names upon plated Goods, whereby a proper Distinction betwixt plated 'Goods of the different Manufacturers is prevented, and all Emulation in that Branch of Business is de-'stroyed; to the certain and manifest Prejudice of the said Manufactory:' For obviating such Doubts, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Manufacturer of Goods plated with Silver within the said Town of Sheffield, or within one hundred Miles thereof, to strike, or cause to be struck, upon any Metal Vessel or Thing, plated or covered with Silver, his or her Surname, or, in case of any Partnership, the Name or Firm of such Partnership, and also some Mark, Figure, or Device, to be struck at the End of such Surname, or other Name or Firm; such Mark, Figure, or Device, not being the same, or in Imitation of any Mark, made use of by any Assay Office established by Law for assaying of wrought Plate, without being subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture for so doing; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Manufacturers of plated Goods may strike their Names, together with a Mark, on the Goods, without incurring the Penalty in the Act 13 Geo. 3.

III. Provided nevertheless, That every such Surname, or Name, or Firm, as aforesaid, shall be in plain and legible Characters, and struck with one Punch only; and every such Mark, Figure, or Device, shall, before the same is made use of, be submitted to the Examination of the said Company of Guardians of the said Sheffield Assay Office, and be approved of by them at some of their public Meetings, and registered in a Book, to be kept for that Purpose; for which Registry there shall be lawfully demanded and taken, from any Manufacturer of plated Goods on whose Account such Registry shall be made, the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence, and no more.

Names to be in legible Characters; and Marks to be approved of by the Guardians, and registered at the Office.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared, That in case any Manufacturer or Manufacturers of plated Goods within the said Town of Sheffield, or within one hundred Miles thereof, shall at any Time hereafter strike any Name, Mark, Figure, or Device, upon his plated Goods, which shall not have been previously registered at the said Assay Office for the said Town of Sheffield, or which shall have been previously registered at the said Office by any other Manufacturer of plated Goods, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay, to the said Wardens, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered in like Manner as any Penalty or Forfeiture is, by the said recited Act, authorised or directed to be recovered, and to be applied as any other Money is herein-before directed to be applied.

Manufacturers using a Name or Mark not registered, or belonging to others, to be subject to a Penalty.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

Publick Act.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for the Preservation and Encouragement of the Hat Manufactory within this Realm, by preventing the Exportation of British Hare Skins, British Hare Wool, and British Coney Wool, and all undressed or untawed British Coney Skins, and for preventing any of the said Skins from being stained or dyed; and for the Importation of Goats Hair into this Kingdom, Duty-free.

'WHEREAS British Hare Wool, and British Coney Wool, are principal Articles used in Hat-'making, and such of these Articles as are of the Growth or Produce of England, far excel that of 'any other Country in Quality; by reason whereof, and of the great Excellence to which the Hat Manu-'facture hath been brought in this Kingdom, English Hats have had great Preference abroad, and consi-

Preamble.

'derable Quantities of them have been heretofore exported to foreign Markets; but of late several foreign 'States have established Manufactures of this Kind, and, instead of taking from this Kingdom (as hereto- 'fore they have been used to do), they not only detain their own Commodities, which heretofore have been 'usually imported, but they also purchase and take from us our raw British Hare Skins, and British Coney 'Skins, and British Hare Wool, and British Coney Wool, which, by the present Laws of this Realm, they 'are at Liberty to do, on paying a trifling Duty on the Exportation thereof, whereby the Hat Manu- 'facture of this Kingdom (on which the Support of many Thousands of British Subjects depends) is 'materially injured, and the said foreign Manufactures benefited and supported: And whereas Goats Hair, 'or Turkey Goats Wool, is also an Article much used in the Hat Manufacture, great Quantities of it 'have heretofore been imported into this Kingdom, which always paid a Duty of six Pence per Pound, 'or thereabouts, on Importation, whereas our Rivals in the Hat Manufacture permit the same to be im- 'ported into their respective Countries Duty-free, by reason whereof only very small Quantities of it 'have lately been imported into this Kingdom: For Remedy and Prevention of those several Evils, and to 'the Intent that the Hat Manufacture of this Kingdom may be preserved and encouraged, by prohibiting 'the Exportation of all British Hare Skins, and British Hare Wool, and British Coney Wool, and all 'undressed or untawed British Coney Skins, and by permitting Goats Hare, or Turkey Goats Wool, to 'be imported into this Country Duty-free;' may it please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the twentieth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, shall directly or indirectly export, transport, ship off, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, shipped off, carried or conveyed, out of or from the Kingdom of Great Britain, into any foreign Realm, States, or Dominions, or into any Parts or Places whatsoever beyond the Seas, any British Hare Skins, or Parts or Pieces of any such Skins, or British Hare Wool, or British Coney Wool, or any undressed or untawed British Coney Skins, or Parts or Pieces of any such Skins whatsoever; or shall directly or indirectly load, or cause to be loaden, upon any Horse, Cart, or other Cattle or Carriage, or load or lay on board, or cause be to be loaden or laid on board, of or in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in any Place or Ports within or belonging to this Realm, any British Hare Skins or Parts or Pieces thereof, or any British Hare Wool, or British Coney Wool, or any undressed or untawed British Coney Skins, or any Parts or Pieces of any such Skins, to the Intent or Purpose to export or transport, ship off, carry or convey the same, or cause the same to be exported, transported, shipped off, carried or conveyed out of the Kingdom of Great Britain, or out of any Port or Place belonging thereto, or with Intent or Purpose that any Person or Persons whatsoever should so export, transport, ship off, carry or convey the same out of the said Kingdom, or into any foreign Parts or Places whatsoever.

From Aug. 20. 1784, no Person shall export any British Hare Skins, Hare Wool, or Coney Wool, or undressed Coney Skins, or load any Horse or Cart, &c. therewith, in order to export the same.

Penalty on the aforesaid Offences.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Offender and Offenders, Offence and Offences aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to the respective Pains and Penalties and Forfeitures herein after mentioned; (that is to say,) the said British Hare Skins, or any Parts or Pieces of any such Skins, and British Hare Wool, and British Coney Wool, and undressed or untawed British Coney Skins, or any Parts or Pieces of any such Skins so exported, transported, shipped off, or carried, conveyed, or loaden, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited, and the same shall and may be seized and prosecuted by any Officer and Officers of his Majesty's Customs, and the Owner or Proprietor, Shipper or Exporter, of such Goods, shall, for each and every Offence, forfeit five hundred Pounds; and every Master and Mariner of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, on which such Goods shall be laden, and every Person whatsoever, knowing such Offence, and willingly aiding and assisting therein, shall, for each and every Offence, forfeit and pay forty Pounds.

From Aug. 20, 1784, no Person shall stain or dye any British Hare Skins or Coney Skins, on Forfeiture thereof, with the Machines, &c. and also 20l.

'III. And, inasmuch as the Provisions hereby made for the Preservation of the aforesaid British Hare 'Skins and British Coney Skins for the Hat Manufactory may be invaded, and in a great Measure ren- 'dered ineffectual, by the staining or dying of such Skins;' for Prevention whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the said twentieth Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, shall directly or indirectly stain or dye, or cause, procure, suffer, or permit, to be stained or dyed, any British Hare Skins, or Parts or Pieces of any such Skins, or any British Coney Skins, or Parts or Pieces of any such Skins whatsoever, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, on Forfeiture thereof, together with all and every the Machines or other Utensils wherein any of the aforesaid Skins, or Parts or Pieces of Skins, shall be stained or dyed, together with all the Apparatus to them, and every of them, belonging, to be seized and prosecuted as herein before directed; and that every of the Offender and Offenders therein, and all and every Person and Persons whomsoever aiding and assisting therein, shall forfeit and pay, for every Offence, the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures herein before inflicted, shall be one Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Officer or Officers of the Customs who shall sue and prosecute for the same; and shall and may be recovered in the same Manner, and by the same Rules and Regulations, as other Penalties and Forfeitures are recovered by any Act or Acts of Parliament for preventing Frauds in his Majesty's Revenue of the Customs.

Limitation of Actions.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person for what he shall do in pursuance of this Act, such Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, shall be brought and prosecuted in the County where the Cause of Action doth arise, and not in any other County or Place; and the Person so sued shall and may file common Bail, or enter into a common Appearance, and plead the General Issue Not Treble Costs.

'VI. And, for the better Encouragement of the Hat Manufactory of this Kingdom, to the Intent that 'Goats Hair, or Turkey Goats Wool, may hereafter be imported into this Country Duty-free,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Duty and Duties, of what Nature or Kind soever, payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, for or upon any Goats Hair, or Turkey Goats Wool, imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain, from and after the said twentieth Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable. After Aug. 20, 1784, Goats Hair may be imported Duty-free.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to enable the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrants to make out new Writs for the Choice of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Room of such Members as shall die during the Recess of Parliament; and also by another Act passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for explaining and amending the said Act, and for enabling the Speaker of the House of Commons to make out new Writs for the Choice of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Room of such Members as shall, during the Recess of Parliament, become Peers of Great Britain, and be summoned to Parliament, and for other the Purposes therein mentioned; several Provisions were made for enabling the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown to make out new Writs for electing Members of the House of Commons, in the Room of such Members as should happen to die, or become Peers of Great Britain, at the Times, in the Manner, and under the Restrictions in the said several Acts mentioned: And whereas the said Acts have been found highly advantageous to the Publick, by causing speedy Elections of Members of the House of Commons, and it is therefore expedient that the Provisions therein contained should be further extended, and freed from certain of the Restrictions in the said Acts particularly specified, and also that some further Provisions should be made for carrying the said Powers into Execution, in the Cases of the Death of the Speaker of the House of and 15 Geo. 3. Cap. 36.

'Commons for the Time being, or of his Seat in Parliament becoming vacant, or of his Absence out of 'the Realm; and it would be also convenient that the Provisions contained in the said two several Acts of 'Parliament, and of this Act, should be reduced into one Act of Parliament, and that, for that Purpose, 'those Provisions contained in the said two several Acts should be repealed;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act, passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and also so much of the said Act, passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as enables the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrants to make out new Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

The recited Act of 10 Geo. III. repealed; and Part of 15 Geo. 3. Cap. 36.

II. And be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being, during any Recess of the said House, whether by Prorogation or Adjournment, and he is hereby required to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ for electing a Member of the House of Commons in the Room of any Member of the said House who shall happen to die, or who shall become a Peer of Great Britain, either during the said Recess, or previous thereto, as soon as he shall receive Notice, by a Certificate, under the Hands of two Members of the House of Commons, of the Death of such Member, in the first Case; and in the second Case, that a Writ of Summons hath been issued, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to summon such Peer to Parliament; which Certificate may be in the Form, or to the Effect, comprized in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

Speaker to issue his Warrant, during a Recess, for making out Writs for electing Members in the Room of those who shall die, or become Peers of Great Britain.

III. Certificates of Vacancies to be notified in the Gazette.

IV. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend to enable the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant for the Purposes aforesaid, unless the Return of the Writ (by virtue of which such Member deceased, or become a Peer of Great Britain, was elected) shall have been brought into the Office of the Clerk of the Crown, fifteen Days at the least before the End of the last Sitting of the House of Commons, immediately preceding the Time when such Application shall be made to the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue such Warrant as aforesaid; nor unless such Application shall be made so long before the then next Meeting of the House of Commons for the Dispatch of Business, as that the Writ for the Election may be issued before the Day of such next Meeting of the House of Commons; nor in case such Application shall be made with respect to any Seat in the House of Commons which shall have been vacated in either of the Methods before-mentioned, by any Member of that House against whose Election or Return to serve in Parliament a Petition was depending, at the Time of the then last Prorogation of Parliament, or Adjournment of the House of Commons.

Certain Restrictions on the Speaker relative to issuing his Warrant.

'V. And whereas the due Execution of this Act may be prevented or impeded by the Death of the 'Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being, or by his Seat in Parliament becoming vacant, 'or by his Absence out of the Realm, for which Inconveniencies it is expedient to provide a Remedy;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the present Speaker of the House of Commons, and he is hereby required, within a convenient Time after the passing of this Act, and for every future Speaker of the House of Commons, and he is hereby required within a convenient Time after he shall be in that Office, at the Beginning of any Parliament, by any Instrument in Writing under his Hand and Seal, to nominate and appoint a certain Number of Persons, not more than seven, nor less than three, Members of the House of Commons at the Time being, thereby authorizing them, or any one of them, to execute all and singular the Powers given to the Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being, for issuing such Warrants as aforesaid, by virtue of this Act, subject nevertheless to such Regulations and Exceptions as are herein also contained; which Instrument of Appointment and Authority shall, notwithstanding the Death of the Speaker of the House of Commons making and executing the same, or the vacating his Seat in Parliament, continue and remain in full Force until the Dissolution of the Parliament in which it shall be made.

Speaker to authorise a certain Number of Members of the House of Commons to execute the Powers given to him by this Act.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever and as often as the said Number of Persons, so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall, by Death, or by their Seats in Parliament being vacated, happen to be reduced to less than three, it shall and may be lawful for the Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being to make a new Appointment in the Manner herein-before directed.

When such Number shall be reduced to less than three, a new Appointment to be made.

VII. Provided also, That every such Appointment shall be entered in the Journals of the House of Commons, and be also published once in the London Gazette; and the Instrument of such Appointment shall be preserved by the Clerk of the House of Commons, and a Duplicate thereof shall be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

Appointments to be entered in the Journals of the House, and published in the Gazette.

VIII. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give any Power or Authority whatsoever to any Person so to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, except in the Case of there being no Speaker of the House of Commons, or of his being absent out of the Realm, nor for any longer Time than such Person, so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall continue a Member of the House of Commons; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

In what Cases only such Persons are impowered to act.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Publisher of the Gazette for the Time being, when any such Notice as aforesaid of the issuing of any such Warrant shall be brought to him, signed by any Person so appointed as aforesaid, shall give a Receipt for the same, specifying the Day and Hour when the same was received; and in case more than one such Notice shall be brought to him, relative to the same Election, such Publisher shall insert in the Gazette only the Notice first received.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act for repealing the several Duties on Tea, and for granting to his Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof; and also several Duties on inhabited Houses; and upon the Importation of Cocoa Nuts and Coffee; and for repealing the Inland Duties of Excise thereon.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS the several Rates and Duties upon Tea, exposed for Sale in these Kingdoms, amount 'together to so considerable a Sum, in proportion to the Value of that Commodity, as to afford 'great Encouragement to the fraudulent Importation thereof, and have contributed greatly to other illicit 'Practices highly detrimental to the Revenue, and of dangerous Consequences to the Publick, the Pre'vention of which is become an Object of the utmost Importance; we, your Majesty's most dutiful and 'loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, do therefore think it would be for 'the Advantage of the Publick to repeal the several Duties imposed upon Tea, and in lieu thereof to 'grant unto your Majesty the several new Duties herein-after mentioned: And we do most humbly beseech 'your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifteenth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, the several Rates, Duties, and other Impositions upon Tea imported, sold, or used in this Kingdom, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable.

Preamble.

From Sept. 15, 1784, the Duties on Tea shall cease.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies shall be, and they are hereby discharged, of and from the Payment of all Duties whatsoever, by any Act or Acts heretofore imposed upon all Tea, the Property of the said United Company, which shall, on the said fifteenth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, remain in the Warehouses of the said Company in Great Britain, under the Lock, or in the Custody of the Officers of his Majesty's Revenue, having Charge thereof.

East India Company discharged from Payment of Duties on Tea in their Warehouses, &c. at that Period.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon all Tea which, from and after the said fifteenth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, shall be delivered to the Buyers thereof by the said United Company, there shall be paid to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Tea, a Duty of twelve Pounds ten Shillings per Centum, to be computed upon the gross Prices at which such Tea shall be sold; which Duty shall be paid, by the said Purchaser or Purchasers, to the said United Company, at such Time or Times as shall, by the Conditions of such Sales, be from Time to Time appointed for Payment of the Price of such Tea to the said United Company; and that the said United Company shall at all Times, together with the proper Officers of the Customs, make up an Account of twelve Pounds ten Shillings per Centum, to be computed upon the gross Prices at which such Tea shall be sold, and pay the same to the Collector Inwards of his Majesty's Customs, within thirty Days after the Expiration of each quarterly Sale, which Duty shall be again drawn back and repaid upon the Exportation of such Tea to any Place where a Drawback of the Duties is now allowed by Law.

For all Tea delivered by the Company to the Purchasers thereof after that Period, there shall be paid a Duty of 12*l.* 10*s. per Cent.*; which shall be drawn back upon Exportation, &c.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Tea upon which the Duty hereby imposed shall not have been paid, and which, from and after the said fifteenth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, shall be entered for Exportation to any Place where a Drawback of the Duties is allowed by Law, shall and may be delivered from such Warehouse wherein the same shall be secured as aforesaid for that Purpose, free of any Duty, subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all other Respects, to which such Tea would have been liable if the Duty thereon had been paid and drawn back as herein-before directed.

All Tea in such Warehouses, on Sept. 15, 1784, for which the Duty shall not have been paid and entered for Exportation, &c.

shall be delivered from the Warehouses free of Duty.

'V. And whereas it is just and reasonable that the said United Company should, in consideration of 'the great Benefit which may result to their Commerce from the Reduction of Duties hereby made, 'contribute their utmost Endeavours for securing to the Publick the full Benefit which will arise from an 'immediate and permanent Reduction of Prices;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Directions for the Company relative to their Sales of Tea.

the said United Company shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, put up and expose to publick Sale, at the least, five Millions of Pounds Weight of Tea; and shall, in like Manner, at some other Time before the thirty-first Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, make another Sale, at which they shall, in the like Manner, put up, at the least, two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Weight of Tea; and shall thenceforward continue to make at the least four Sales in every Year, and, as near as conveniently may be, at equal Distances of Time, and shall put up at such Sales such Quantities of Tea as shall be judged sufficient to supply the Demand; and that at each and every such Sale, the Tea so put up shall be sold without Reserve to the highest Bidder, provided an Advance of one Penny per Pound shall be bid upon the Prices at which the same shall be put up; and that at the four first Sales, which shall be made after the passing of this Act, the Prices at which the said Tea shall be put up and exposed to Sale shall not exceed the following Rates; videlicet,

Restriction of the Prices put up at the first four Sales:

Bohea, 1s. 7d. per Pound;
Congo, 2s. 5d.

For Bohea Tea, one Shilling and seven Pence per Pound;

For Congo Tea, two Shillings and five Pence per Pound;
For Souchong Tea, three Shillings and three Pence per Pound;
For Singlo Tea, three Shillings and three Pence per Pound;
For Hyson Tea, four Shillings and eleven Pence per Pound;

Restriction at all future Sales.

And that it shall not be, at any Time hereafter, lawful for the said United Company to put up their Tea for Sale at any Prices which shall, upon the Whole of the Tea so put up at any one Sale, exceed the prime Cost thereof, with the Freight and Charges of Importation, together with lawful Interest from the Time of the Arrival of such Tea in Great Britain, and the common Premium of Insurance, as a Compensation for the Sea Risk incurred thereon; and that the said United Company shall from Time to Time send Orders for the Purchase of such Quantities of Tea, and provide sufficient Ships to import the same, as, being added to the Stock in their Warehouses, and to the Quantities ordered and not arrived, shall amount to a sufficient Supply for the keeping a Stock at least equal to one Year's Consumption, according to the Sales of the last preceding Year, always beforehand; and that the said United Company shall, from Time to Time, lay before the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, Copies of the Accounts and Estimates upon which such Orders for Importation, or Prices for Sale, or Quantities put up to Sale, shall be grounded, whenever such Orders shall be sent out, or such Sales made, or as often as they shall be called upon for the same, by the said Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the said Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being.

Company to keep a proper Stock of Tea in their Warehouses, &c.

'VI. And whereas, for the Relief of all Persons now possessed of Tea bought of the said United 'Company, but remaining in their Warehouses as aforesaid, it hath been agreed by the said United Com- 'pany, in compliance with the unanimous Opinion of a General Meeting of the said Persons, to take 'back from them all such Tea at prime Cost, as shall, on the said fifteenth Day of October, one thousand 'seven hundred and eighty-four, remain in the Warehouses of the said Company in entire Lots, or in 'Lots not diminished after the Date of such Agreement;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Bargains made by the said United Company respecting such Tea as is herein-before described, as (having been sold at their Sales) shall, on the said fifteenth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, remain in their Warehouses not delivered to the Buyers thereof, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be, null and void; and that the said Company shall forthwith grant to each of the said Buyers a Certificate of the Sum of Money which each of the said Buyers shall have paid to the said United Company in respect thereof; which Certificates shall be received by the said Company as and in lieu of Cash to the same Amount, in Payment for any Tea bought at their next ensuing Sale; or, if not so tendered in Payment, the said Company shall, upon Demand, at any Time after the prompt Day, or Day of Payment, to be appointed for Tea to be so bought at their next Sale, pay the same in Cash to the Holder thereof.

Clause relative to Tea sold by the Company, but which shall remain in their Warehouses, in entire Lots, &c. on Sept. 15, 1784.

Tea Dealers, not residing within the Bills of Mortality, or Borough of Southwark, who are possessed of any Chests of Tea in the Package wherein it was imported, &c. may return the same to the Company's Warehouse Keeper:

And if the Company are satisfied such Tea has not been unpacked, &c. they are to allow the Dealer the prime Cost paid for the same, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for all and every Tea Dealer, not residing within the Bills of Mortality, or the Borough of Southwark, who shall, at the Time of passing this Act, have in his, her, or their Possession, one or more entire Chest or Chests of Tea in the same Package in which it was originally imported into this Kingdom by the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, and for which the Inland Duties shall have been paid by or in the Name of such Dealer, and which shall have been purchased at either of the two last Sales of the said Company, and which shall have been conveyed directly from the Warehouses of the said Company to the Warehouse or Shop of such Tea Dealer, to return such Chest or Chests of Tea, by the most proper and speedy Conveyance, to the Warehouse-keeper of the said Company; a List of which Chests, containing an Account of the Number of each Chest, the Weight of Tea contained in it, and the Price which it cost at the Company's Sale, together with the Name of the Ship in which it was imported, and the Folio in which it was printed in the Company's Sale Book, shall be delivered to the Warehouse-keeper of the said Company within eight Days after the passing of this Act, and the said Chest or Chests of Tea shall be taken into the Warehouses of the said Company; and if it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of the said Company, that the Tea which is contained in any Chest so returned has not been unpacked since it was delivered from the Warehouses of the said Company, but is the same which was originally contained therein, then the prime Cost of such Chest or Chests of Tea, which shall have been paid by such Dealer or Dealers, shall be allowed to such Dealer or Dealers, in Part of Payment for such Tea purchased at the next Sale of the East India Company; but if the said East India Company shall be of Opinion that the Tea contained in such Chest or Chests so returned is not the same as was originally contained therein, or that any unfair Practice shall have been made use of, it shall be lawful for the said Company to refuse such Chest or Chests of Tea; and that, for every Chest of Tea accepted, as herein-before provided, by the said East India Company, the Commissioners of Excise shall deliver a Certificate of the Sum of Money which has been paid for the Inland Duties on the Tea contained in such Chest, to the Dealer returning the same; and such Certificate shall be taken by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Payment of the Customs which shall be due on the Teas to be purchased at the next Sale of the East India Company; provided that every Dealer shall, within five Days after the passing of this Act, deliver to the Excise Officer who usually surveys the Stock of such Dealer, a List of the Teas proposed to be returned to the Warehouses of the East India Company, in all Respects similar to that herein-before directed to be delivered to the Warehouse-keeper of the said Company.

Company not obliged to receive any such Chest, unless the Particulars herein mentioned are complied with.

VIII. Provided always, That no Dealer shall be permitted to return to the East India Company any whole Package either of Green or Black Tea, unless it shall appear that such Dealer had in his Stock, at the last Survey made thereof, previous to the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, as much of either or both of those Sorts, over and above the Chests so intended to be returned, as would, according to his usual Consumption, to be computed upon the Average of the last four Months previous to the said first Day of August, be sufficient to supply the same from that Time till the fifteenth Day of September next; and an Account of the usual Consumption of such Dealer, and of the Amount of his Stock of Green and Black Teas respectively, at the Time any whole Packages are returned, shall be transmitted, by the Officer of Excise who usually surveys such Dealer, to the Commissioners of Excise, and also to the Warehouse-keeper of the East India Company; and such Officer of Excise shall also transmit to the Directors of the East India Company an Account of all Teas which have, since the twenty-fifth Day of July last, been taken into the Stock of any Dealer who shall send any Chest of Tea to be returned as aforesaid, to the End, that if it should appear to the said Directors that there is just Cause to suspect that any of the Tea so taken into the Stock of such Dealer has not paid the full Duties to which the same by Law was liable, the said Directors may, in such Case, refuse to receive any Teas whatever from such Dealer.

'IX. And whereas there are certain Quantities of Prize Teas now remaining under the Locks of his 'Majesty's Officers of the Customs and Excise, for which the Duties of Customs have been paid, 'and certain other Quantities of Prize Teas damaged by Salt Water are now remaining in two private 'Warehouses under the Survey of his Majesty's Officers of Excise, where they were removed for the Con-'venience of drying the same, for which the Duties of Customs and Excise have been paid;' be it further enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, to direct, by Warrants under their Hands, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs or Excise respectively to repay to the Owners or Proprietors of such Teas the Amount of the Duties which have been received for such Part of the said Teas as shall be remaining in the Custody and under the Survey above-mentioned, on the fifteenth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four; provided it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Duties on the said Teas, so remaining on the Day above mentioned, have been actually received by the Officers of the Customs and Excise: Provided always, That the Owners or Proprietors of the said Teas shall pay the Duty of eighteen Pounds and ten Shillings per Centum, according to the Prices at which the same were bought, for such Parts or Parcels thereof as shall be remaining under the Locks of his Majesty's Officers of Customs or Excise, or under Survey in the two Warehouses as above mentioned.

Owners of certain Prize Teas to be repaid the Duties paid for such Part as shall remain in the Warehouses on Sept. 15, 1784:

But for which they shall pay the Duty of 18l. 10s. per Cent.

CAP. XLII.

An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, an Act made in the thirtieth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Persons who shall attain, or attempt to attain, Possession of Goods or Money, by false or untrue Pretences; for preventing the unlawful Pawning of Goods; for the easy Redemption of Goods pawned; and for preventing Gaming in Publick Houses, by Journeymen, Labourers, Servants, and Apprentices, so far as the same relates to the preventing the unlawful Pawning of Goods; and for the easy Redemption of Goods pawned.

Preamble.

Act 30 Geo. 2, Cap. 24, recited.

'WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the thirtieth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Persons who shall attain, or attempt to attain, Possession of Goods or Money, by false or untrue Pretences; for preventing the unlawful Pawning of Goods; for the easy Redemption of Goods pawned; and for preventing Gaming in Publick Houses, by Journeymen, Labourers, Servants, and Apprentices, certain Rules and Provisions are prescribed and established for regulating the Manner in which Goods and Chattels may be taken in Pledge or Pawn, for the Repayment of Money lent thereon, not exceeding in the Whole the principal Sum of ten Pounds, and directing the Mode of redeeming such Goods and Chattels, on Payment of Principal and Interest of the Money borrowed thereon, with such further Sum, for Charges of Warehouse Room, as the Parties should have agreed on at the Time of making such Pledge or Pawn: And whereas several Tenders of Money, for Principal and Interest of Money lent, and Warehouse Room of Goods pledged, lately made for the Redemption of Goods pledged, to Pawnbrokers, the Amount of which Interest and Charges for Warehouse Room, so tendered, hath been much below the Amount of the usual and customary Interest and Charges for Warehouse Room taken by Pawnbrokers in the said Trade, and at a Rate much below the necessary Expences thereof, have lately been considered to be sufficient, and Verdicts have been obtained by Persons making such Tenders as aforesaid, against the Pawnbrokers; and if the said Business should be carried on agreeably to such Verdicts, the Profits arising therefrom would be so much reduced as to be insufficient to afford an adequate Maintenance for the Pawnbroker: And whereas the said recited Act is in other Respects (so far as the same relates to the pawning Goods, and Redemption of Goods pawned) insufficient to answer the good Purposes thereby intended;' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful, from and after the second Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, for all Persons using or exercising the Trade or Business of a Pawnbroker, to demand, receive, and take, of and from all and every Person and Persons, applying or offering to redeem any Goods or Chattels pawned or pledged with such Pawnbroker, a Profit after the following Rates, over and above the principal Sum and Sums which shall have been lent and advanced upon the respective Pledge or Pledges, before any such Pawnbroker shall be obliged to redeliver the same; (videlicet,)

Rates of Profit allowed to be taken for the future.

And so on progressively, and in Proportion, for any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, to be paid for by the Calendar Month in Manner above mentioned; which several Sums shall be in lieu of, and taken as a full Satisfaction for all Interest due, and Charges for Warehouse Room.

II. And

Disputes relating to small Sums to be settled by a Justice.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Difference or Dispute shall arise between any Person or Persons pledging or redeeming, or offering to redeem, any Goods or Chattels, and the Pawnbroker with whom the same shall have been pledged, respecting the Re-delivery thereof, or the Money to be paid to such Pawnbroker, every such Difference or Dispute, in case the original Sum lent was under forty Shillings, shall be settled and determined by some Justice of the Peace acting for the respective County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Place, who is hereby authorised and required, upon Application being made to him for that Purpose, by Examination on Oath of the Parties themselves, and such other credible Person or Persons as shall appear before him, touching the Premises, to hear and determine the same, which Determination shall be final and binding unto and upon all Persons; and that no such Difference or Dispute shall be tried, heard, or determined, in any of the superior Courts of Law, or in any other Manner than before a Justice of the Peace as aforesaid.

Persons pledging to take a Duplicate.

III. And be it further enacted, That when any Person or Persons shall pledge with any Pawnbroker any Goods or Chattels, whereupon a Sum of two Shillings or upwards is lent, such Pawnbroker shall and is hereby required to give a Duplicate or Copy of the Entry made in his or her Book respecting the Goods and Chattels so pawned, which Duplicate the Person receiving the Money lent is hereby required to receive and take; and every such Duplicate, where the Sum lent shall not exceed five Shillings, shall be given gratis, and where the Money lent shall be more than five Shillings, and not exceeding ten Shillings, such Pawnbroker shall and may take one Halfpenny for the same; and where the Sum lent shall be more than ten Shillings, and not exceeding twenty Shillings, such Pawnbroker shall and may take one Penny for the same; and where the Money lent shall be more than twenty Shillings, and not exceeding five Pounds, the Sum of two Pence for the same; and where the Money lent shall be more than five Pounds, the Sum of four Pence, and no more, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding; and which Duplicate shall be produced to the Pawnbroker before he shall be obliged to redeliver the respective Goods or Chattels, except Linen or Apparel entrusted to any Person or Persons, for the Purpose of washing, scouring, ironing, mending, or making up the same; and also except Goods or Chattels which shall have been feloniously taken and carried away, or unlawfully pawned or pledged; and except as herein-after is excepted.

Provision of former Act respecting Duplicates amended.

'IV. And whereas many Inconveniences have arisen to Persons carrying on the Business of a Pawnbroker, 'from several different Persons claiming a Property in the same Goods and Chattels, where Duplicates 'or Copies of the Entries made in the Pawnbroker's Book, at the Time of taking such Goods and 'Chattels in Pawn, have been given, as the said former Act directs:' for Remedy whereof in future, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said second Day of August, in all Cases where such Duplicate or Copy hath been given, the Person or Persons who shall, at any Time after, produce such Duplicate or Copy to the Person or Persons with whom the Goods therein specified were pawned or pledged, as the Owner thereof, and require a Delivery of the Goods or Chattels mentioned therein, to him, her, or them, such Person or Persons shall be, and hereby is and are deemed and taken to be, so far as respects the Person or Persons having such Goods and Chattels in Pledge, the real Owner and Owners, Proprietor and Proprietors, of the said Goods and Chattels; and the Person or Persons so using the said Trade and Business of a Pawnbroker shall be, and is hereby directed and required, after receiving Satisfaction pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, respecting Principal and Profit, to deliver such Goods and Chattels to the Person or Persons who shall so produce the said Duplicate or Copy to him, her, or them, and shall be, and is and are hereby indemnified for so doing, unless he, she, or they shall have had previous Notice, from the real Owner or Owners thereof, not to deliver the same to the Person or Persons producing such Duplicate, or unless Notice shall have been given to him, her, or them, that the Goods and Chattels pawned have been, or are suspected to have been, fraudulently or feloniously taken or obtained, and unless the real Owner or Owners thereof proceed in Manner herein-after provided and directed, for the redeeming of Goods and Chattels pledged, where such Duplicate or Copy hath been lost, mislaid, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from the Owner or Owners thereof.
